It is said lynx-eyed officials are touring the country on the look out for offenders against the Motor law.
Two of the leading routes on which car owners are being nabbed are absence of necessary lights after dark, and neglect to possess chauffeur's licenses. The law has been so often quoted, the authorities look upon these violations as a sort of defiance, hence the campaign. How will Wat-

A serious accident which may yet prove fatal occurred on the farm of Mr. Frank Ward, fourth line, on Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Isaac I. Kadey received injuries from which it is not likely he will recover. Threshing was in operation at the time and Kadey was going from one mow to the other. When near the top of the ladder holding on to a brace, the brace came loose and he fell to the cement floor of the barn, a distance of about twenty-two feet. On advice of Dr. Newell he was moved to Victoria Hospital, London, on Sunday. The X-ray disclosed that his back was badly crushed and the doctors do not hold out any hope of his recovery. His head was also slightly cut. Mr. Kadey

The Brooke Women's Institute have recently concluded a course in Home Nursing, which was conducted by Miss Mary McLachlan, a large class of young ladies taking advantage of it. At the examination, which was conducted by Dr. Siddall, a beautiful cut glass vase was presented to Miss McLachlan, and although not repaying in any way for all her kindness and trouble, was a small reminder of the many pleasant afternoons spent together. Miss Mary made a neat reply.

DEATH OF MRS. S. J. SAUNDERS

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of an old and respected resident in the person of Margaret Jane Whitcraft, wife of Samuel J.
Saunders, John St., Watford, which sad event occurred about 3 p.m. on Saturday, September 23, 1922.

Deceased was born in the township of Warwick on May 29, 1850, and was consequently in her seventy-third year.

On June 14th, 1874, she was married to Samuel J. Saunders, who survives her. Mrs. Saunders was a member of Trinity Church, Watford, also the Church Women's Guild, and a member of Minto Hive No. 311, L.
O. T. M.

Business her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss one son, Sterling, and two daughters, viz., Mrs. J. Callahan, and Pearl at home and two brothers: William of Flint, Mich., and Thomas, of Watford.

The funeral, which was held from the family residence on Monday afternoon, was very largely attended.
The service was conducted by Rev.
J. H. Hosford, M.A., assisted by the Rev. E. H. Sowers, interment being made at St. James' cemetery, Brooke. The pallbearers were six nephews of deceased, viz: Robt.
Logan, Robt. Saunders, Arthur Newell, Bert Taylor, Thomas McLeay and R. Williamson.

has made an assignment.

The death took place very suddenly in Sarnia on September 18th of William Gunn, formerly of Brooke township.

Pleading guilty to giving short measure, 15 proprietors of gasoline filling station at Akron, Ohio, were fined $10 each.

The management of the Old Boys' Reunion at Windsor have a $2,500 deficit on their hands, which they are asking the city council to make up.

While Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thompson, of Chatham township, were in Dresden, their house was ransacked by robbers, who found and took $700 in cash.

The gas well struck on Archie Mc-Lachlan's farm in Brooke has caved five feet high.

Mr. and Mrs. Aeneas H. McLean announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Pearl, to Mr. J. Paul Sullivan, the marriage to take place early in October at their residence, Kerwood.

A number of the Masonic friends of Wm. Bro. Jean Nunn, Strathroy, assembled in the lodge room Thursday evening and presented him with a beautiful gold-headed cane, as a parting token on the eve of his removal to Riverside, California.

The tomato crop in Kent county is turning out better than was anticipated two weeks ago and it is now believed that it will be a fairly good crop. The yield of cucumbers will, however, be short. Hundreds of tons of cabbages of good quality are now being marketed.

John Thomson, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Strath-roy passed away Friday morning last after a lingering illness, in his 70th year. Mr. Thomson had been confined to his bed for over a year and a half, as a result of a stroke. Deceased was born in the adjoining township of Adelaide.

Mabel's mother had caught a cold, and as a precautionary measure had resorted to the old remedy—a glass of hot whiskey. A little later, Mabel, aged five was ready for bed, and as she kissed her mother a look of reproach crept into her eyes. "Mother, she said solemnly, "you've been using father's scent."

The residence belonging to Roy Ives on the sideroad between Concessions B. and C. in the Marsh in Mersea Twp., together with the contents, were destroyed by fire recently. The same in a coal oil stove had been turned out, but before it was fully extinguished it is supposed that the wind blew a curtain over it and becoming ignited, set fire to the place.

Mrs. C. J. Wall, of Alvinston, had one of her eyes removed at a London hospital. It had become diseased.

A most interesting event took place at Melbourne on Saturday, Sept. 16, from 4 to 7 p.m., when Dr. and Mrs. Howell celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding.
The home and lawn were beautifully decorated with cream and purple asters. Eight tables were prepared on the lawn, a basket of asters on each table, from which over 30 guests were served.

Hiram John Carman, farmer on concession 5, Ekfrid township, was instantly killed at noon on Tuesday when he fell from a beam in his barn. His head struck a wire, with the result that his neck was fractured. Threshing was going on at the farm, lot 3, and at noon when the moon stopped work, Mr. Carman went to fix the wire in some way. Evidently he fell from a bent, striking the wire.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis, Plympton and Enniskillen townline, was the scene of a happy event on Monday evening, when guests to the number of 60 assembled to celebrate the 15th anniversary of their wedding. Relatives came from Toronto, Strathroy, Sarnia, Mandau-min and Wyomint. The evening was spent playing cards and dancing, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Many beautiful gifts of crystal were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis, all in the community wishing them many happy years to come.

Mrs. Campbell, a young married woman who resided on a farm a few miles west of Newbury, was fatally burned on Tuesday morning of last week. Mrs. Campbell, whose husband was away from home, was lighting a fire in the stove, using crude oil for kindling. A puff of flame ignited her clothing and she ran out of the house. Her little daughter, aged four years, seeing her mother in flames, ran over to a neighbor, Mr. Foley, and told him to tell papa that mother was burning to death. Mr. Foley hurried over to Campbell's and found the mother with her clothing completely burned off. The woman expired a few minutes later. Mrs.
Campbell leaves beside her husband two small children.

One of the old residents of the township of Plympton, passed away Monday morning, Sept. 18th, in the person of Margaret Komlison, beloved wife of Duncan Falconer, aged 73 years. Deceased was only ill about a week previous to her death.
She was born on the farm on which she died and in 1873 was married to Duncan Falconer, who with the following family survives: Mrs. Shea and Mrs. Wm. Goubeck of Plympton; Mrs. Ernest Sheehard of Warwick, Mr. L. Davidson of Theford and Mary at home. One daughter Annie, pre-deceased her 17 years ago and a son, Alex., was killed in the Great War. A sister, Mrs.
Komlison of Saskatchewan, also survives. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon to the Wyoming cemetery.

We were talking to a citizen the other day who had been looking over local census figures and he was greatly impressed by the number of unmarried men and women as shown by the statistics. "We are spending millions of dollars to get foreign immigrants without education or money to come to this country, and populate our great vacant stretches," said our friend, "and here we have thousands of Canadians who are not following the old injunction to replenish the earth." "You can laugh at me if you like," this citizen continued, "but I think we seriously ought to address ourselves to this problem and get more of our population lined up in martial harness before they reach the years of sere and yellow old age. Our ministers should do more from the pulpits to remind their parishioners of their duty, and our government and press should tackle the problem. You may laugh at the idea, but I think that some sort of official matrimonial bureau would be a good thing."—Walkerton
