More Milk

HALF a gallon more milk from each cow every day, will more than pay your feed bill.

Nearly every cow owner gets that increase with Purina Cow Chow.

It costs about a dollar a month more to feed Cow Chow, but that difference is more than made up in the first week. The rest of the month you get your extra milk for nothing.

Feed out of the Checkerboard Bag and you will get more milk.

Librarian's Report

After four years' cruising on the high seas of Literature, and in the bays and inlets surrounding book-land, Lawrence town's good ship "Library" has again put into the home port,—bankers all but empty,—for repairs, provisions, and cargo. Skipper and crew appear little worse for the voyaging. There has been no mutiny or insubordination, no hurricane or heavy gales encountered, but an occasional squall,—while day after day we have been becalmed, awaiting a favoring breeze bearing to the deck crisp notes from the Royal Bank of Canada to waft us on our way.

During the last voyage two of the officers deserted,—the purser and head steward. They were good mariners, beloved alike by captain and crew.

The keepers of the log have been most faithful,—no Saturday but shows careful entries of progress made.

Much of the cargo needs thorough overhauling, followed by an application of Spaulding's glue, hemp rope, and tarred paper, while the ship herself should go in dry dock,—have the upper decks cleared, the port windows polished, and a new door for Mazette's Cabin.

From week to week there have gone out from the store to twelve hundred and fifty sales, to the homes of the people, some packages containing "gold, silver, precious stones", others holding only "wood, hay, stubble," just as the consumer has chosen.

Now, that the next voyage may be the most prosperous yet, the officers and men must be the bravest and best, right kind of cargo, properly stowed, plenty of ballast.

"Then blow high or blow low, all will be well, for
"One ship drives east, another drives west.

While the selfsame breeze blows,
'Tis the set of the sails and not the gales.

That tells them where to go
Like the winds of the air are the wars of the fates.

As we journey along through life;
'Tis the set of the soul that decides the goal.

And not the storm nor the strife."

TRAIN NO. 99 BETWEEN HALIFAX AND YARMOUTH

Dominion Atlantic Train No. 99, scheduled to leave Halifax at 8.30 p.m. Saturday, December 23rd, will be held until 9.30 p.m. stopping at all stations between Halifax and Annapolis where there are passengers to get down. This will afford an excellent opportunity for passengers to travel on train 99 and return by train 99, thus giving ample time in the city for Christmas shopping.

It is better to scrape potatoes than to pare them, thus retaining the food value of the potato.

Hunger often keeps one awake. A glass of warm milk or well-made cocoa will often soothe one off to sleep almost at once.
