

HIS OPINION OF THE REGIMENT.

The C.O. of a regiment was much troubled at the persistent untidiness of one of his men. Reprimand and punishment were unavailing. The man was incorrigible, and remained as dirty as ever.

A brilliant idea struck the colonel. Why not march him up and down the whole line of the regiment, and shame him into decency? It was done.

The untidy warrior, who hailed from the Emerald Isle, was ordered to exhibit himself and march up and down the entire regiment, and the men were told to have a good look at him. The unabashed Pat halted, saluted the colonel, and said in the hearing of the whole corps, with the utmost sang froid: "Dhirtiest regiment I iver inspected, sorr!"
