CANVASSERS WANTED

We are now prepared to receive applications from any of our readers, or their friends, who have leisure time to canvass their town or township thoroughly. We do not care whether our agents give us all or only a part of their time, so long as they make a thorough canvass of the territory they undertake to work, and for which we will give them the exclusive right. We guarantee good wages to any such; and are now prepared to give full particulars, terms, etc., to applicants for territory.

Remember, -1st, that in these hard times a cheap article will sell readily, while more expensive ones will remain unsold; and, 2nd, that those who apply first will receive the choice of territory. Address,
