McALL ASSOCIATION—ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Canadian McAll Association was held on the 7th inst. in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, Hamilton. Rev. Mr Fletcher presided. In the secretary's reports reference was made to the methods employed by the McAll Missions in France in doing its work. There are 119 mission halls—22 in Paris, 16 in the suburbs and 81 in the Provinces. The total income for the year was $80,000. The Canadian Association—eight auxiliaries, London, Hamilton, Woodstock, Winnipeg, St. Catharines, Toronto, Parkdale and Brantford—support halls at Rochefort, La Rochelle and Toulouse. The reports of these stations are encouraging, the meetings are well attended, and the children's meetings are prosperous.

The treasurer reported as received $1,060.10. Rev. Mr. Boville moved the adoption of the secretary's and treasurer's reports. The mission is economically managed; many of those engaged in it receive no remuneration, but labor for the pure love of it.

Rev. Thomas Gulick, representative secretary of the American McAll Association, gave a very interesting account of the formation of the American Association also of the effect the McAll Mission halls have on the people and neighborhood where they are placed and on the children, of which there are 10,000 attending the mission Sunday Schools. Mr. Moody, he said, called it "a model mission." In it are 600 workers, of whom 500 are French.
