

down to hell, and God wants us to hate him and all his works.

This is a beautiful white stone—"Love One Another." O, how lovely and beloved are the children who remember what God says about this! One such child can make sunshine in a dark place. Do not forget this stone.

"Ready to Serve." A lazy child cannot know how much this stone is needed in his wall. All true work is work for God. Pulling weeds or minding baby, if done in the right spirit, is serving God.

"Gladness" is a bright stone. Who should be glad but the one who is building a good life that will last forever?

"Patience" and "Prayerfulness" are twin stones. One will not stay in place without the other, and, indeed, the first will be in danger of falling down if the last one be left out.

"The Giving Spirit." The heart that does not love to give is not like God. He gave his Son and eternal life. How small the best gifts we can offer, yet he wants them.

"Forgiveness." The angels surely smile when they see this stone laid in the wall of your life. God forgives, and so must we. No matter if others are unkind, we are building for God, and we can forgive them.

"Sympathy." Be glad when others are glad, and sorry when others are. This is a smooth and lovely stone, and God wants to see it in your life-wall.

Where can we get these stones? Give yourself to God, and he will give you back all the beautiful things that make a good life.

OPTIONAL HYMNS.

No. 1.

Take my life, and let it be.
Father, lead me day by day.
If my disciple thou wouldst be.
Soldiers of Christ, arise.
Far and near the fields are teeming.

No. 2.

Sweet is the work, O Lord.
The Saviour is calling.
Christians, lo!
Go, labor on while it is day.
Forward! be our watchword.

The Lesson Catechism.

[For the entire school.]

1. How does Paul beseech us to present our bodies? A living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God.

2. Instead of being conformed to this world, what should we be? Transformed by the renewing of our minds.

3. How are we to treat our friends? Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love.

4. How are we to treat our enemies? Bless them which persecute you.

5. What is the GOLDEN TEXT? "Be not overcome," etc.

CATECHISM QUESTION.

64. Why did the Son of God become man?

That He might teach us His heavenly doctrine, set us a pattern of perfect holiness, and lay down His life as the price of our redemption.

John xv. 15. All things that I heard from My Father I have made known unto you.

1 John ii. 6. He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also to walk even as He walked.

A.D. 57.] LESSON V. ABSTINENCE FOR THE SAKE OF OTHERS. [Oct. 29.]
GOLDEN TEXT. We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Rom. 15. 1.

Authorized Version.

1 Cor. 8. 1-13. [Commit to memory verses 12, 13.]

1 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth anything, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we Revised Version.

1 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth. If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he knoweth not yet as he ought to know; but if any man loveth God, the same is known of him. Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no God but one, 5 For though there be that are called gods, whether