IRELAND.

The Very Rev. Dr. Lyons, Roman Catholic Dean of Killala, has returned after an absence of twenty months in the Eternal City. He was received by his parishioners, and indeed by the people of every village and hamlet on his way to Binghamstown from Castlebar, with the most heartfelt joy and enthusiastic acclamations.

The Archbishop of Tuam has been pleased to appoint the Very Rev. John Madden, P.P., Roscommon, and Vicar-General of the diocese of Elphin, to be Vicar-Capitular. There being no Dean or Chapter in the diocese of Elphin, this appointment devolved on his grace. The election of a successor to the late lamented Dr. Burke, was fixed for Tuesday, the 17th instant. The Very Rev. Charles McNally, President of the Dunboyne establishment in Maynooth, has been appointed coadjutor to the Right Rev. Dr. Kernan, Bishop of Clogher.

The Rev. Doctor Miley, of Dublin, preached on Sunday in the Cathedral church, on behalf of the Christian Brethren, when this magnificent edifice was crowded to overflowing by persons of all creeds and denominations, attracted by the fame of the reverend gentleman's eloquence, and the inclination to support a charity the most meritorious of any that ever claimed public patronage.—Waterford Chronicle

THE NEW BISHOP OF ELPHIN.—On Monday last the Archbishop of Tuam, accompanied by Dr. Loftus, chancellor of the diocese, held the election for a successor to the bishopric of Elphin, vacant by the death of the lamented Dr. Burke. The candidates were the Right Rev. Dr. Brown, Bishop of Galway, for whom there appeared 21 votes; Rev. Mr. Tighe, P. P., Castlereagh, 12 do., and the Rev. Mr. Madden, P. P., Roscommon, 8 do. We regret that Galway will be deprived of the exemplary, pious, and patriotic bishop who has so long presided over that diocese.—Tuam Herald.

THE ABBOT OF MOUNT MELLEARY.—To the astonishment of every one, this amiable and beloved clergyman and religionist, the Very Rev. Dr. Ryan, has rallied so much as to be able to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for some days back. The whole community continue to offer up their prayers for his spiritual comfort and necessities.

TUAM CATHEDRAL.—The Archbishop thankfully acknowledges the munificent subscription of Twenty Pounds from John Egan, Esq., in aid of the funds for completing the above edifice.
