NEW ROMANCE, undoubtedly the best work yet done by Miss MacGowan and Mrs. Cooke. The heroine of “Return,” Diana Chaters, is the belle of the Colonial City of Charleston, S. C., in the early 18th century, and the hero is a young Virginian, of the historical family of Marshall. The youth, beauty and wealth of the fashionable world, which first form the environment of the romance, are pictured in sharp contrast to the rude and exciting life of the frontier settlements in the Georgia Colony, and the authors have missed no opportunities for telling characterizations. But “Return” is, above all, a love story.

We quote the opinion of Prof. Charles G. D. Roberts, who has read the advance sheets: “It seems to me a story of quite unusual strength and interest, full of vitality and crowded with telling characters. I greatly like the authors’ firm, bold handling of their subject.”
