Moody of the same city, dressmaking, is reported to be in similar trouble.

The Steamship Grassbrooke has been stranded on the coast of Newfoundland, but a short distance it is reported, from the place where the Anglo-Saxon went ashore in 1863. The Grassbrooke is an iron steamer built in 1882 at Hamburg, classing in the French Lloyds equal to A1 English. She is of 1,935 tons gross, 1,459 tons net, and owned by the Dampschiff Rbedeier (Hansa) Company, of Hamburg. She left Antwerp on June 11th, with a general cargo, amongst which was a considerable amount of window glass, merchants having supplemented their orders in many cases after the wreck of the SS. Helvetia of the same line, a few weeks ago. A scarcity of window-glass is anticipated.

We regret to learn that the respectable firm of Milne & Clute, general merchants, Sterling,

Ont., are again in difficulties. Previous to the disastrous fire in that village, two years ago, the firm had always maintained an excellent standing. Their losses at the time, which were about $25,000 with only about $7,000 of insurance, compelled them to seek for a settlement from their larger creditors at 70 cents in the dollar. Their total liabilities then were about $32,000. The composition notes were paid in full. They now claim that they paid more than the estate warranted, and assign as a cause for their present troubles considerable shrinkage in assets. The liabilities are about $19,000; and the assets about $18,000, after writing off $2,000 in book-debts. Their present offer of 45 cents is not favorably regarded by the creditors, who think they should pay at least 60 cents in the dollar. An assignment has been made to the representative of a leading wholesale firm in Montreal.

Mr. GEORGE Wilkinson, of Guelph, recently referred to, was in business there for more than twenty years, with varying results, having during that time twice come to grief. On the first of June his principal creditors called on him to assign, which he did, and at once left the city for "the land of the free." His stock had since been sold to a Mr. Standish, yielding about $3000; his books are reported little worth, whilst his liabilities are uncertain. In addition to his wholesale dealers he has rendered himself liable to his friends for accommodation paper to a considerable amount, having traded largely on his friends in the Masonic order, the Foresters and other associations. Mr. W. was well liked as a business man; he was always reported honest and truthful, and his recent frauds are a source of disappointment to many, in addition to the losses they will sustain.
