

Poetry.

THE DELUGE.

(From the Christian Citizen.) BY DUGANNE. Deep mutterings were heard, As of approaching tempest—now, in low...

BISHOP TAYLOR AND HIS WORKS.

(From the Literary World.) Jeremy Taylor, to follow the record of Mr. Wilmott, was the son of a barber of Cambridge in 1613.

Taylor was educated at Caius College, while Milton was pursuing his studies at Christ's. He became a Fellow; and invited to London to preach for a friend at St. Paul's...

When Canada was in the possession of the French, a Roman Catholic Priest, named Father Nicholas, having assembled a considerable number of the Indians...

The soft, subdued light of a cathedral, which speaks of the senses of a temple set apart for holy things, which checks the unhallowed foot on the threshold...

THE BELL OF ST. REGIS.

(From the Calendar.) When Canada was in the possession of the French, a Roman Catholic Priest, named Father Nicholas...

cause our belief is exclusive, therefore, our hearts are divided from our fellow servants of Christ. Those who are aware of the distinction will wilfully ignore it...

THE DIVISIONS OF PRESBYTERIANISM.

(From the Christian Remembrancer.) In the reign of Charles II. there were two parties of Presbyterians, called Remonstrants and Remonstrants...

word shall survive in its glory, when the arch of heaven shall have been spoiled of its brilliant gems; the monuments of earthly glory ground to dust...

THE FAITHFUL SHEPHERD.

(From Bishop Patrick's "Parable of the Pilgrim.") He is a person that is altogether disinterested, and a partaker in none of those sects and factions that are among us...

word shall survive in its glory, when the arch of heaven shall have been spoiled of its brilliant gems...

ECCLESIASTICAL INTELLIGENCE.

Table with columns for CANADA, EASTERN BRANCH OF THE TORONTO DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY, and various church events and financial reports.

Advertisements and notices in the left margin, including names like 'Mills, Manser' and 'Mills, Manser'.