HERBERT E. SIMPSON,
ARTIST * AND * PHOTOGRAPHER

SUCCESSOR TO

NOTMAN & FRASER.

41 KING STREET EAST.

IN returning thanks to our patrons of Toronto and the Dominion generally for the very liberal support and kind words of encouragement received from them in the short time he has been in business, begs to announce to them he has brought his appliances to such a state of perfection that he can turn out a really superior and unsurpassed style of Photographic work in Ink, Crayon, Water or Oil Colors; he employs the best talent and skill in and out of the gallery, and has received the most flattering testimonials of its appreciation, both at home and abroad. Any improvement in the photographic art will be made use of, together with our untiring industry, to merit a continuance of the patronage and support so kindly extended to him.

Having the immense stock of negatives of Messrs. Notman & Fraser, all orders for copies from them must be sent direct to 41 King St. East, as we cannot attend to order left with other galleries. Copies enlarged to any size and furnished in any style desired.

H. E. SIMPSON.
