· That Garibaldi is not so intensely popular in every part of Italy as is represented, is admitted by the accredited correspondent of a morning journal in his interest, who says :-

At Naples Garibaldi is far from popular. The middle and upper classes distrust him, the lower classes regard him with fear, the priesthood dislike him, and what is left of the army cannot forget the humiliation which his bloodless triumph has inflicted upon them. The Municipal Council has been as yet unable to come to a vote on a motion to confer upon their liberator the freedom of their city, and still less to offer the crown to Victor Emmanuel.

Really, we begin to suspect that the Neapolitans are not such fools as they have been described .-

Garibbaldi has complied with the request of a deputation of Venetians, who sought permission to publish at Naples a Journal, to excite the people of Venetia to a general rising, and he caused his reply to be published in the official Journal of Naples. He told the deputation that the present war was the only national one which could give them a country. Our battles are so many marches in our progress to the Alps, on the summit of which alone we will stop. The soldiers of the King at Gaeta are said to have demolished the residence of the French Consul, under the pretence that there was a connivance between him and Garibaldi. The Consul was absent at the time.

The Patrie reports that the Neapolitan Royalists

were masters of the Volturno.

The Patrie says:—"Garibaldi, in a letter to Signor Abrusco, published in the Official Journal of Naples, says:—'Although I am quite disposed to sacrifice all personal feeling on the altar of the country, I could never be reconciled with men who have sold an Italian province.' Nevertheless, a decree of the Dictator promulgates the Sardinian Constitution for Naples and Sicily, but without fixing a date for its execution,"

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.

MESSRS. PERRY DAVIS & SON-Gents -I am at a loss to express with words the satisfaction it gives me to inform you of the benefit I have received from the use of your Pain Killer. About one year since, I was attacked with the inflammatory rheumatism being unable to walk for eight weeks; besides the confinement to the house, the pain I experienced no tongue can describe. But to return to the object of this letter. On the 27th of December last I had a more severe attack than before, I immediately commenced using the Pain Killer made by you, which to my surprise, immediately relieved me of pain, and saved me the necessity of being confined to my bed for one day. It is now eleven days since the attack, and the inflammation has entirely subsided. My limbs, which were tremendously swollen, have assumed their natural shape. In short I am entirely well; and feel bound, by the common sympathics of my nature for those who may be thus afflicted, to make the above statement, that all may resort to the Pain Killer, that time, expense, and a world of suf-fering may be prevented.

REMARKS ON THIS PROSPECTUS. J. M.

The object of this new Academy is to benefit families who are desirons that their children should re-ceive a complete course of instruction in the English language. The Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, anxious to promote the welfare of education in this respect, will secure their pupils every facility of making proficiency in this tongue. They will devote to this purpose a part of the edifice which has recently been erected on a magnificent site-au courant Stc. Marie-and which is due to the munificence of Mr. Simon Valois. A Chapel is attached to the building that will soon be opened for public worship, and whose architectural beauty will afford connaisseurs an accurate idea of Saint Mary Major, justly ranked among the most beautiful churches of Rome.

The Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary hope that their enterprise will be cordially greeted by an enlightened and benevolent Public, and that success will crown their endeavors, if they continue to enjoy the same patronage which has been so liberally tendered to them at Longueuil, where the Mother House is established, as well as in the different parishes and missions where they have been entrusted with the education. They avail themselves of this opportunity to return their sincere thanks to the friends of education, who have so liberally patronised their community; and they now purpose to labor with renewed energy in behalf of the noble cause which Divine Providence calls upon them to advocate.
