BRITISH MARKETS.

LONDON, 12th May, 1886.

Lewenz & Hauser's Tea Letter of 1st May, says:—Green teas have latterly attracted more attention owing to the low range of prices which, since the beginning of the year, has gradually been reached. Pingsueys generally and Imperials out of invoices of country teas have been taken, and seem to be still wanted for the American markets. The following figures will convey a fair idea of the present position of green teas:—
