Talk's cheap, but when it's backed up by a pledge of the hard cash of a financially responsible firm, or company, of world-wide reputation for fair honorable dealing, it means business!

Now, there are scores of sarsaparillas and other bloodpurifiers, all cracked up to be the best, purest, most peculiar and wonderful, but bear in mind (for your own sake), there's only one guaranteed blood-purifier and remedy for torpid liver and all diseases that come from bad blood.

That one—standing solitary and alone-sold on trial, is

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

If it don't do good in skin, scalp and scrofulous diseases -and pulmonary consumption is only lung-scrofula—just let its makers know and get your money back.

Talk's cheap, but to back a poor medicine, or a common one, by selling it on trial, as "Golden Medical Discovery" is sold, would bankrupt the largest fortune.

Talk's cheap, but only "Discovery" is guaranteed.

A REMARKABLE STORY

Already famous in Europe, entitled "Four Days," from the Russian of Garshin appears in the double summer number of POET-LORE—June 15th. It is a vivid picture of a significant episode in the life of a modern soldier. Two short stories of a very different kind follow—"Faded Leaves," and "Green is Hope," translated from the Norse of Alexander Kielland. The same number of POET-LORE contains a hitherto unpublished letter of John Ruskin's on "Wages"; and critical papers on "Two Versions of the Wandering Jew," by Prof. R. G. Moulton; "The Text of Shakespeare," by Dr. Horace Howard Furness; "An Inductive Study of 'As You Like It," by C. A. Wurtzburg; and a "Study Programme: Magic, Out-door and Human Nature in Literature," of practical use to Reading Circles or for the home study of Literature

A COMPLETE PLAY—"Harold," by the distinguished German dramatist, Ernst von Wildenbruch, will be given, translated into English verse, with the translated into English verse, with the author's sanction, in the second double number of Poet-lore—Sept. 15th. This drama is on an English theme, is full of action, and is a marked success on the German stage (copyright applied for). A portrait of the author, and a critical and biographical account of him, will also be sized.

HOW TO GET WELL, KEEP WELL AND LIVE LONG

WITH RECIPES.

A TRUSTY GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY An illustrated book of nearly 800 pages, treating Physiology, Hygiene, Marriage, Medical Practice, etc. Describing all known diseases and ailments, and giving plain prescriptions for their cure, with proper directions for home treatment.

The RECIPEN are endorsed by eminent physicians and the medical press. Remedies are always given in a pleasant form, and the reasons for their use. It describes the best Washes Liniments, Salves, Plasters, Infusions, Pills, Injections, Sprays, Syrups, Tonics, etc. These are valuable to the physician and nurse, making it a manual for reference.

The chapter upon POISONS is exhaustive, and every poison appears in the index, so that the antidote can be readily and, if need be, hurriedly found.

18 pages upon MARRIAGE treat the subject historically, philosophically and physiologically. It should be read by everybody.

67 pages upon HYGIENE, or the Preserv-tion of Health; a chapter of inestimable value. Everybody wishes to be healthy, and everybody, then they think of it at any rate, wishes to word such things as might bring disease and
