

APPENDIX "H"

The Materials Handling Show is held every even year at the Anaheim Convention Center. The show is generally staged during the summer. We visited the 1982 show which had a total attendance of 9,385 over it's three day period. Exhibitors were almost exclusively materials handling companies. Rental costs are around $860 for a 10' x 12' space. The show has been in operation since 1956
