

Article V

The Polish People's Republic shall not divert to another country any grain purchased under these arrangements without obtaining prior approval from Canada.

Article VI

This Agreement shall come into force on the date of signature, and shall remain in effect for a period of three years from that date.