

- (d) proceedings are open to the public, unless the law and the administration of justice otherwise require; and
- (e) the proceedings are free and expeditious or do not entail unreasonable fees or delays, and the time limits do not impede exercise of the rights.

2. Each Party shall provide that parties to the proceedings have the right, pursuant to the Party's legislation, to seek review and correction of decisions issued in those proceedings, and that this review complies with the requirements in paragraph 1 and is conducted by decision-makers who are impartial and independent and do not have an interest in the outcome of the matter.

Article 6: Public Information and Awareness

1. Each Party shall promptly publish or otherwise make publicly available its labour law, regulations, procedures and administrative rulings of general application respecting a matter covered by this Agreement so that interested persons and the other Party are able to become acquainted with them.

2. When required by its law, each Party shall:

- (a) publish in advance a measure that it proposes to adopt; and
- (b) provide interested persons a reasonable opportunity to comment on the proposed measures.

3. Each Party shall promote public awareness of its labour law, including by:

- (a) ensuring the availability of public information related to its labour law and enforcement and compliance procedures; and
- (b) encouraging education of the public regarding its labour law.
