

denial of cooperation by both parties. The Commission, therefore, earnestly recommends to the Co-Chairmen that, with a view to reducing tension and preserving peace in Vietnam, remedial action be taken, in the light of this report, so as to ensure that the parties: (a) respect the zone assigned to the other party; (b) observe strictly the provisions of articles 16, 17 and 19 of the Geneva Agreement in respect of the import of war material and the introduction of military personnel; (c) commit no act and undertake no operation of a hostile nature against the other party; (d) do not allow the zones assigned to them to adhere to any military alliance and to be used for resumption of hostilities or to further an aggressive policy; (e) cooperate with the International Commission in the fulfilment of its tasks of supervision and control of the implementation of the provisions of the Geneva Agreement.

23. The International Commission for Supervision and Control in Vietnam takes this opportunity to renew the assurances of its highest consideration to the Co-Chairmen of the Geneva Conference on Indochina.
