

3. Defining the Tax Base .....	91
A) Zero-Rated Supplies .....	91
(i) Basic Groceries .....	91
(ii) Exempt Meal Plans Provided by Universities and Colleges .....	95
(iii) Agricultural and Fish Products .....	95
(iv) Prescription Drugs .....	96
(v) Medical Devices .....	96
B) Tax Exempt Supplies .....	97
(i) Institutional Health Care .....	97
(ii) Health Care Practitioners .....	97
(iii) Educational Services .....	98
(iv) Day Care .....	100
(v) Legal Aid .....	101
4. The GST and Small Business .....	103
A) Technical Paper Proposals .....	103
B) Witnesses' Representations .....	104
C) Committee's Conclusions and Recommendations .....	106
(i) Small Business Fee .....	106
(ii) Small Traders Threshold .....	106
(iii) Streamlined Accounting Procedures .....	107
5. The GST and the Consumer .....	113
6. Transportation and Travel .....	115
A) Tourism .....	115
B) Passenger Transportation Services .....	117
C) Freight Transportation Services .....	119
D) Excise Tax on Fuel .....	121
7. Real Property .....	123
A) Conceptual Framework .....	123
(i) The Tax Should Not Distort The Housing Markets .....	125
(ii) The Tax Should Treat Home Owners and Residential Tenants Equally .....	125
(iii) The Tax should Be Consistent Between Acquisitions and Sales of Similar Properties .....	125
(iv) Competing Resources Should Bear Comparable Tax Burdens .....	127
(v) The Application of the Tax Should Be Clear and Simple .....	127
B) Technical Paper Proposals .....	127
1. Land .....	127
(i) Technical Paper Proposals .....	127
(ii) Representations Received by the Committee .....	127
(iii) Views of the Committee .....	130