

it is of the opinion that the agricultural industry must have the benefit of a comprehensive, long-term commitment by the federal government.