

Business of the House

portant subject and I do not think we could conclude it today, even if we sat till midnight.

Mr. Tremblay: May I thank all hon. members for the close co-operation I have received from them.

Resolutions adopted in committee of supply this day reported and concurred in.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Churchill: Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the acting house leader what is the business for next week as far as he can go.

Mr. Benidickson: Mr. Speaker, as announced by the Solicitor General last night the first item of business on Monday will be resuming the debate on second reading on Bill No. C-121, to provide for the extension of credit to farm machinery syndicates. That would be followed by item No. 49 on today's order paper, house again in committee of the whole on the resolution with respect to the Crop Insurance Act. The third item for Monday would be item No. 76 on today's order paper, second reading of Bill No. C-123, to amend certain acts administered in the department of insurance. The house leader informs me that if agreement could be obtained on Monday there might be a switch, in that Bill No. C-123 might follow the farm machinery legislation, and the Crop Insurance Act resolution would then be in third rather than second place.

It being three minutes after six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
