

Business of the House

Mr. Cafik: My understanding is that by moving it to the committee more quickly there will be that kind of opportunity.

Mr. Paproski: Don't you believe it!

Mr. Cafik: Just a moment. I am saying that I have not heard—

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Boulanger): Order, please. It being 9.02 p.m., the time provided for the consideration of the motion now before the House under Standing Order 75C has expired.

The motion is now before the House. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the said motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

Some hon. Members: Read the motion.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Boulanger): All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Some hon. Members: Read the motion.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Boulanger): All those opposed to the motion will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Boulanger): In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Boulanger): Call in the members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Sharp) which was agreed to on the following division:

Mr. Speaker: I therefore declare the motion carried.

Mr. Sharp: Mr. Speaker, since the House is in such an amiable mood I have another suggestion to make. It will be recalled that when I announced the business for today and tomorrow, I included as the first order of business second reading of Bill C-92 dealing with prisoners of war. Because of the hour at which we have arrived, I was a little afraid that we might not reach that item before ten o'clock. Therefore there have been discussions among House leaders. There is an agreement, I understand unanimously, to take the second reading of Bill C-92 now without further debate.

Mr. Baker (Grenville-Carleton): Mr. Speaker, I listened very carefully to the government House leader. We are in agreement with what I think is a very commendable move on all sides of the House. I just want him and others to
