

Strangers ordered to withdraw

17. If at any sitting of the Senate, or in Committee of the Whole, any senator shall take notice that strangers are present, the Speaker or the chairman (as the case may be) shall forthwith put the question, "That strangers be ordered to withdraw", without permitting any debate or amendment: Provided that the Speaker or the chairman may, whenever he may think fit, order the withdrawal of strangers, from any part of the Senate.

Government
bill, etc., Minister may be invited

18. When a bill or other matter relating to any subject administered by a department of the Government of Canada is being considered by the Senate or in Committee of the Whole, a minister, not being a member of the Senate, may on invitation from the Senate enter the Senate chamber and, subject to the rules, orders, usages, forms and proceedings of the Senate, may take part in the debate.

Order of business

19. At each daily sitting of the Senate, the Speaker shall call for, in the following order:

- (a) presentation of petitions;
- (b) reading of petitions;
- (c) reports of committees;
- (d) notices of inquiries;
- (e) notices of motions;
- (f) inquiries;
- (g) motions;
- (h) question period;
- (i) orders of the day.

Question period

20. When the Speaker calls the question period, a senator may ask any question of the Government Leader in the Senate relating to matters of urgency or importance to the nation or the Senate. No notice of such questions is required. Supplementary questions may be asked.

Precedence
among orders of the day

21. Unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, orders of the day take precedence according to priority as follows:

- (a) orders of the day for the third reading of bills;
- (b) an order of the day which was under consideration at the time of adjournment;
- (c) orders of the day which had not been reached at the time of adjournment;
- (d) remaining orders of the day.
