

- Place, ii. 93; receives news of the capture of Oswego by the French, ii. 93; burns the forts of, ii. 94; at German Flats, ii. 94; ii. 102, 127; on the importance of Indian assistance, ii. 173; at Fort Edward, ii. 184; visits Fort William Henry, ii. 184; asked by Monro for reinforcements, ii. 185; his indecision, ii. 186; the number of his troops, ii. 186; asks Loudon for reinforcements, ii. 190; warns Monro to expect no help from him, ii. 191; his letter intercepted, ii. 191; correspondence of, ii. 202; his orders from Loudon, ii. 204; joined by Johnson at Fort Edward, ii. 205; deals with a mutinous militia, ii. 205; seized by the panic, ii. 206; his letter to Loudon, iii. 276.
- Webb's regiment, on the Heights of Abraham, iii. 133, 141; in the battle of Quebec, iii. 141, 142.
- Wedell, General, defeated by the Russians, iii. 233.
- Weed, Mr., ii. 92.
- Weiser, Conrad, the Pennsylvanian interpreter at Onondaga, i. 70; journal of, i. 70, 77; on the Half-King's comments on the fight at Great Meadows, i. 166; letter to Governor Morris from, ii. 33.
- Wentworth, Governor, i. 301; on the massacre at Fort William Henry, ii. 199; letter from Christie to, ii. 206.
- Wesley, i. 8.
- West, the, deplorable condition of French interests in, i. 56; favorable outlook for the English in, i. 62; French posts in, i. 200; French posts and settlements in, ii. 4.
- West, Benjamin, the painter, ii. 368, 369.
- West, Captain, ii. 368.
- Westborough, Mass., ii. 295.
- "Western, Squire," i. 9.
- Western tribes, the, set on by Dumas to attack the border settlements, ii. 14; join the French to recover Pittsburg, iii. 86; refuse to fight, iii. 207.
- West Indies, the, French possessions in, i. 12; i. 142; rising French colonies in, ii. 42; iii. 33, 247, 252, 286.
- Westminster Abbey, ii. 298.
- West Mountain, i. 311.
- Wheeling Creek, Bienville at, i. 51.
- Whig aristocracy, the, in England, does a priceless service to English liberty, i. 8.
- Whipping-post, the, in camp, ii. 326.
- Whitefield, i. 8.
- Whitehall, town of, Dieskau at, i. 309; ii. 329; iii. 95.
- White Mountains, the, ii. 141.
- White Point, ii. 262, 263.
- White's Chocolate-House, i. 9.
- White Woman's Creek, i. 58.
- Whiting, Lieutenant-Colonel, i. 313; in Dieskau's ambush, i. 314.
- Whitmore, Brigadier, ii. 253; made governor of Louisbourg, ii. 281.
- Whitworth, Doctor, at Fort Edward, i. 281.
- Whitworth, Miles, on the massacre at Fort William Henry, ii. 197, 202; iii. 278, 279.
- Wiggins, George, ii. 288.