

concluded with the Indians. This treaty was signed, on the part of the Indians, by the Carpenter A. D.
Treaty signed.

of his Majesty's province of South Carolina, with Attakulla-kulla, or The Little Carpenter, Deputy of the whole Cherokee nation, and other Headmen and Warriors thereof, at Fort Prince George, Dec. 26, 1759.

Art. I. There shall be a firm peace and friendship between all his Majesty's subjects of this province, and the nation of Indians called the Cherokees; and the said Cherokees shall preserve peace with all his Majesty's subjects whatsoever.

Art. II. The articles of friendship and commerce, concluded by the lords commissioners for trade and plantations, with the deputies of the Cherokees, by his Majesty's command, at Whitehall, the 7th of September, 1730, shall be strictly observed for the time to come.

Art. III. Whereas the Cherokee Indians have, at sundry times and places, since the 19th of November 1758, slain divers of his Majesty's good subjects of this province, and his excellency the governor having demanded that satisfaction should be given for the same, according to the tenor of the said articles of friendship and commerce aforementioned; in consequence whereof two Cherokee Indians, of the number of those who have been guilty of perpetrating the said murders, have already been delivered up, to be put to death, or otherwise disposed of, as his excellency the governor shall direct; it is hereby stipulated and agreed, that 22 other Cherokee Indians, guilty of the said murders, shall, as soon as possible, after the conclusion of this present treaty, in like manner be delivered up to such persons as his excellency the governor, or the commander in chief of this province for the time being, shall appoint to receive them, to be put to death, or otherwise disposed of, as the said governor and commander in chief shall direct.

Art. IV. The Cherokee Indians, whose names are herein after mentioned, viz. Chenohe, Oufanatah, Tallichama, Tallitahe, Quarrafattahe, Connasoratah, Kataetoi, Otassite
