

EBENEZER STEDMAN,

KEEPS CONSTANTLY FOR SALE,

At the brick Book-Store, MARKET SQUARE, Newburyport,

CHARTS, Pilots, Atlas', &c. with directions, for all parts of the globe, at the lowest rates.

The New American Practical Navigator, by NATHANIEL BOWDITCH, F.A.A. The unexampled demand for this valuable publication, precludes the necessity of any recommendation of it to sea-faring gentlemen;—Nautical Almanacks, Seamen's Journals, Cargo Books, Quadrants, Scales, Dividers, cases Mathematical Instruments, best and common Writing and Letter Papers, Log Paper, Quills, of various qualities, ready-made Pens, red and black Ink, Inkworm, Inkstands, black Sand, Sealing Wax, Wafers, lead Pencils, Pencil Cases, Pocket Books, of all sizes and prices, portable Writing Desks, Dressing Cases, boxes of Water Colours, camel's hair Pencils, India Ink, India Rubber, Drawing Books, Memorandum Books, blank Cyphering and Navigation Books, Waste Books and Ledgers, a great variety.

Razors of good quality, do. Cases, best shaving Soap, in cakes or boxes, Penknives, Jackknives, Scissors, Needles, Thread, Combs, of all kinds, Spectacles, Tobacco and Snuff Boxes, Segar do. American and Spanish Segars, &c. &c. Also,

A valuable collection of new, useful and entertaining BOOKS on Philosophy, Mathematics, History, Voyages, Travels, Politics—Novels, Song Books, &c.

WALSH'S Mercantile Arithmetic, (the most valuable work on that subject extant) in strong binding, may be always found as above.

* * * A very valuable collection of BOOKS, on all subjects, kept by E. STEDMAN, for Circulation.

*****
BOOKBINDING,

IN ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES, EXECUTED WITH NEATNESS.

* * * Seamen who may favor the above Store with their custom, may depend on having the very best articles put up at the lowest prices. Orders punctually attended to, and every reasonable exertion made to gratify purchasers.

Newburyport, Feb. 1, 1804.