

Committee have been informed that but for delay, represented to have been unavoidable, in receiving books from the Parent Society, the sales would have been still larger. Your Committee again earnestly commend the Depot to the use of all Members of the Church, as the place in St. John's where all books of a religious character, best suited to their wants, can be purchased at the lowest cost, and hope that its usefulness as a Church Institution may become more generally known and appreciated. The Depot is now kept by Mrs. Rouse, at No. 305, Water Street, next door to Messrs. Tessier's, nearly opposite its former situation.

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE ENDOWMENT FUND.

With regard to this fund, in the absence of the Bishop, your Committee have nothing to add to the information furnished last year. It is believed that no additions to its amount, requiring special mention, have been received, nor has any change been made in the manner of its investment. The capital sum of upwards of £7,000 sterling is still administered by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, as holding the same in trust for the purposes for which it has been contributed. This Society, it is proper to mention, kindly continues to make up the same income as heretofore, for the maintenance of the College.

BISHOPRIC ENDOWMENT FUND.

This fund, which was originated for the purpose which its name bespeaks, has been already made
