

weave—to dress food for themselves and families—to make clothes for the men and the rest of their families—to keep the clothing of their families clean, and to take care of their children.

Brothers,

We desire, not to mention too many things to you ; but we must add a little further. We are fully convinced, that if you will turn your attention to the cultivation of the earth—To raising the different kinds of grain—To erecting mills for grinding grain—To building comfortable dwelling houses, for your families—To raising useful animals ; amongst others, sheep, for the advantage of the wool, in making clothing—To raising flax and hemp, for your linen—And your young women learn to spin, and weave—that your lives will be much easier, and happier, than at present—and that your numbers will increase, and not continue to diminish. As we before observed, brothers, your land is good. It is far better than the land the white people near the great water, cultivate. We are persuaded, that your land will produce dou-
