

besides its anniversary meeting, namely, on the first Thursday of the months of February, May, August and November.

At all meetings of the Society, after the President or Vice-President has taken the Chair, the rules shall be laid on the table for the perusal and direction of the members; and nothing shall be talked of but the business of the Society, while the President keeps the Chair.

Every member speaking on business shall stand up and address himself to the Chair, and no member shall speak more than once on the same subject, except by leave from the Chair, or in order to explain something already offered.

When the subject before the Society is stated and discussed, the President shall propose the same to the decision of the members, which shall be given by ballot in all cases when it is required, or by a show of hands.

Every member resident in the city, who shall absent himself for four successive quarterly meetings, without making an excuse that shall be deemed satisfactory to the Society, shall no longer be considered a member.

At the meeting in November the members present shall, by a majority of votes given by ballot, elect the officers for the ensuing year, to wit, a President, Vice-President, two Assistants, a Historian, a Treasurer, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Chaplain, Committee of Charity, and Messenger; and at this meeting, also, a regulation shall be made for celebrating the Festival of St. Andrew.

Any member being elected to the office of President and refusing to act, shall forfeit four dollars; Vice-President, three dollars; and all other officers two dollars each, for the use of the Society.

At the meeting to be held on the 30th November, each year, for celebrating the Festival of St. Andrew, or on
