

WINTER LECTURES

Jerome, who tells us, "It was the month of Peter upon whom the Lord built His Church..."

"As My Father has manifested My divinity to thee I make known thy crimes; for thou art Peter, that is I am the inviolable Rock upon which I build My Church..."

This is an excellent exposition of the Catholic teaching on the supremacy of St. Peter...

...of the Catholic teaching on the supremacy of St. Peter, Christ, as Founder and first foundation, has all power in Himself...

Death of Miss Fannie Byrne.

At the early age of twenty years, Miss Fannie Byrne, eldest daughter of Mr. J. V. Byrne, 107 Yorkville Avenue, has long illness, which she bore with exemplary patience and resignation...

A graduate of the Abbey, Miss Byrne entered upon the higher course of university education; and with that singular perseverance for which she was remarkable, she mastered all its difficulties and finally achieved success...

The father and the mother of the absent one had suffered keenly during the illness of their beloved child; and now that she is gone from them for ever, their hearts are lorn and desolate...

One of the oldest Catholic residents of Toronto, Mr. Thomas O'Connor, 231 Queen Street East, died Tuesday morning, Mr. O'Connor was in his 72nd year...

The Reliance Loan and Savings Co. This institution—which is among the youngest of its class in the city—is the result of an idea of its founders...

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM. The Guardian of Boston is one of the most reliable authorities on life insurance matters in America...

Carpets. We beg to direct attention to the announcement of Messrs. John Kay, Son & Co., which appears in this issue...

You can carry the little vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets right in the vest-pocket of your dress suit...
