

Rouse yourselves, Canadians, for villany is in arms against your peace and prosperity:—rouse yourselves, for all that was fought for in war—all that was hoped for in peace, is at stake:—rouse yourselves, Canadians, for constitutional right is assailed. One bold and generous effort will yet retrieve your honor,—will retain to you the renown of being honest men and loyal subjects; for loyalty must not suffer the constitution to be invaded and trod down. Let the royal motto be our peculiar watch word:—let Canada from henceforth, bear these words on her shield—“GOD AND OUR RIGHT.”

ROBERT GOURLAY.

ould rather
ge and fa-
uld “love
re is gone, omopoly of
e are com-
Province,
r and feel-

It came
Assembly
ch he was sisting cir-
and to give
effecting no
, also, was
ackson hav-
Indian De-
iver, had a
acres, by a
of Colonel otested, and

Mr. Dick-
firm his ti-
John Sher-
Now, I ask
transaction.
in Canada.
the Prince
y the Con-
our, which
ject to-day,

ually come
from insult
very house,
text be re-
”