

good old-fashioned ideals of:—respect for authority and sane conventions, gentle voices and manners, as indicative of refinement and a right attitude towards life. The restraint exercised is that of any well-bred family, and is calculated to develop both personality and consideration for others. Under no conditions are immature girls allowed to take matters into their own hands. If the students obey orders graciously and keep up in their classes, everything is done to make their school lives exceptionally happy, but under no circumstances will impertinence, flippancy or insubordination be tolerated. The Convent Staff believes that a good school is one that turns out dignified, self-controlled, cultured women with sufficient poise to meet the inevitable trials of life with courage and equanimity.

Every applicant must send social and business references as well as a baptismal certificate before admission.

RULES No girl is allowed to leave the Convent unless properly chaperoned.

Villa Maria will be responsible for no debts contracted outside the Convent.

All correspondence is subject to inspection and each girl should be furnished with a list of approved correspondents signed by her father, mother or guardian.

The Convent Library has subscriptions to all desirable magazines, hence the request that none be sent to the students individually.

Every girl should have a plentiful supply of under linen as frequent changing is insisted upon.
