Father Gapon has gone to Paris under very mysterious conditions, which I am not at liberty to unfold.

The situation is visibly growing worse. The critical moment for Count Witte is coming when the Liberal elements will demand his resignation. A resolution by the agriculturists at Moscow demanding the immediate dismissal of the present cabinet denotes the beginning of the movement away from Count Witte, and signs indicate that this movement will gain in intensity woon."

The resolution was carried by 2cclamation. Resolutions were passed denouncing the government of Ireland, outlawing Wm. O'Brien and his supporters unless they signed the party pledges, expressing disbellef in the promises of the Liberals and pledging absolute support to John Redmond, as leader of the Irish parliamentary party. The moderates were howled down and the committee which was appointed by the recent conference held here under the chairmanship of Lord Rothschild, to take charge of the distribution of the fundamentary party. "It is evident in her present mood, with her present confidence in her own resources. Canada will make no move towards a new commercial treaty with the States."

The article concludes that Canada is going thru a long era of protection, moulded in the usual fashion by industrial greed and political cowardice. Whether the tillers of the soil and the workers in mills, mines, stores and on railroads, who form the immense majority of the population, will have the intelligence and power necessary to rescue themselves from the coils of this protective serpent is the great question for the future. It arouses little interest at present. When the workers of Canada wake up they will find that protection is only one among several economic fangs fastened in their "corpusvile" by the little group of railroad men, bankers, lumbermen and manufacturing monopolists who own their country.
