BRITAIN'S GOOD WILL NECESSARY

To the Possession of the Philippines by the United States—The German Emperor's Visit to Spain—Crate Offered to Russia by the Sultan—A Lot of Cable News of Interest, But Nothing Heavy or Startling.

London, Nov. 12.—Lord Salisbury's speech at the Guildhall banquet still reverberates through the European press.

The Times says editorially this morning: "We are gratified that the American press has not indulged in the mischievous task of reading into Lord Salisbury's utterances something disparaging to the United States. If the United States desire to establish themselves securely in the Philippines it must be with British good-will, since it is clear enough that they will not meet with much friendliness from the other nations of the world."

The Daily Chronicle says: "Emperor William's visit to Spain is probably connected with Germany's ambition to secure the Carolines, seeing that she cannot get a coaling station in the Philippines, but there is not the remotest chance of war over the matter. The fact that the British and the American eagle will be on the same side is the best guarantee of peace."

The Standard, which expresses some suspicion as to the Kaiser's intentions, says: "Possibly Spain is mad enough to try to renew the war, but European peace will not be further disturbed."

The Kaiser's Visit to Spain.
Berlin, Nov. 11.—The Foreign Office disposes of the various deductions drawn from the Emperor's proposed call at the port of Cadix, by saying that His Majesty will not land, but will remain on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, and thus be on German soil.

Cairo, Nov. 11.—Major Marchand, commander of the French expedition now at Fashoda, and Captain Barattier, who carried Marchand's report to Paris, and brought him the reply of the French Government, have postponed their departure for Fashoda.

It seems that there is some hitch regarding the route he is to take. It is understood that he has received an intimation that he will get no assistance from the British unless he agrees to evacuate all Egyptian territory. He hesitates, therefore, to accept the river route.

It is rumored that his instructions are to establish fresh posts in the Bah-el-Ghazal basin.

The Kaiser's Movements.
Beirut, Syria, Nov. 11.—Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria returned to Beirut this evening and went on board the "Cesare" yacht, Hohenzollern, which will sail at dawn tomorrow, escorted by the German warships Hela and Hertha.

Spanish Authority Surprised.
Madrid, Nov. 11.—Duke Almodovar de Rio, Minister of Foreign Affairs, received a telegram this evening, announcing that Emperor William would arrive at Oathenas on Nov. 19. The authorities were apparently greatly surprised when they heard of the visit, and it is probable that they had no previous notice of it.

The whole Spanish press cherishes the hope that Germany will initiate some sort of European intervention. Official circles pretend to be amazed that such an idea should take hold of the public and they loudly declare that the Kaiser's visit will have no official character.

It is understood that as a matter of courtesy the Queen Regent will send an autograph letter, inviting the Emperor and Empress to visit Madrid. In the unlikely event of acceptance, their German Imperial Majesties would naturally be shown special attentions.

WILL MAINTAIN SOVEREIGNTY.
Spain's Resolve as to the Philippine Islands, According to the Spanish Press.

Madrid, Nov. 11.—The Herald this morning asserts that the Spanish Government has resolved to maintain Spanish sovereignty in the Philippine Islands, and it adds that it has been suggested that Emperor William of Germany, who is expected to visit Cuba and Madrid shortly, on his way back to Germany from the Holy Land, be asked to arbitrate the question in dispute between Spain and the United States in the event of the Peace Commissioners of the representative countries, now in session at Paris, failing to come to an agreement upon the terms of the proposed treaty of peace.

The Queen Regent presided at the Cabinet Council held today. Premier Sagasta read a letter from Senator Montero Rios, President of the Spanish Senate, announcing that the American Peace Commissioners had refused to recognize the Cuban debt and had exacted the Philippine Islands. The Cabinet Council will meet again this evening and decide upon a reply.

Admiral Camara's squadron has been ordered to Cadix at full speed, in view of the approaching visit of Emperor William of Germany to that port.

The Spanish steamer Miguel Mallari, which left Nuevitas, Cuba, about Oct. 24, has arrived at Barcelona with repatriated Spanish troops on board. During the voyage across the Atlantic 23 men died, and on arrival here 100 men were seriously ill, suffering from exhaustion and lack of food.

THIRTEEN MURDERERS HANGED.
The Assassins of American Missionaries in Sierra Leone District Brought to Book.

London, Nov. 11.—The mails from Sierra Leone, West Africa, today bring news of the hanging at Kwelli, of 13 murderers of American missionaries, members of the United Brotherhood of Christ, in the Sherbro District of Sierra Leone, last May. The massacre of the missionaries referred to in the foregoing grew out of the dissatisfaction of the natives with the local hut tax. A number of chiefs rebelled and the insurgents spread through the Sherbro district, where the headquarters of the missionaries are the Brotherhood of Christ were located. The insurgents burned the mission houses and murdered a number of the missionaries, among them Mr. and Mrs. Cain and the Misses Archer, Hatfield and Schenck. Several of the missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Burker, Mr. and Mrs. Minshall and the Misses Muller and Ward, succeeded, after terrible experiences, in reaching Free Town, capital of the British colony of Sierra Leone. Miss Muller was rescued under the most thrilling conditions. A British expedition was dispatched to the scene of the uprising and the cremated bodies of several of the missionaries were recovered. The search for Mrs. Cain, who fled to the bush at the time of the massacre, proved fruitless, and it was concluded that she had been killed. Native chiefs to the number of 100 were arrested by the British authorities, and placed on trial for murder. It is probable that the 13 already executed were the principal promoters of the rebellion.

DREYFUS DYING.
The Prisoner's Devoted Wife Was Refused the Privilege of Sending Him Clothing.

Paris, Nov. 11.—Madame Dreyfus, it is said, applied at the office of the Colonial Minister to-day for permission to send her husband some warm clothing for his return home. Her request was refused, on the ground that the Government would do whatever was necessary.

At the same time the authorities read her a letter from her husband to the effect that, having for five months addressed appeals for revision to Gen. Deboussier without getting any reply, and being wearied and exhausted by his useless appeals, he would write no more to his family or to anybody. He described himself as ill and dying, and bequeathed to the "generosity of my country, the care of rehabilitating my memory."

Madame Dreyfus then asked permission of the Minister to send her husband a letter, which she had written, and which she had signed with her own name. This request was also refused. Then, through a friend, she appealed to President Faure, but with no better result. Her counsel will bring the matter before the Court of Cassation.

KILLED AND ROASTED A BAKER.
Horrible Murder by a Homeless Pole of His Benefactor's Assistant in London, Eng.

London, Nov. 11.—A sensational murder was committed in a North London bakery this morning. A homeless Pole named Schneider was given a night's lodging in the bake house, and he murdered the baker's German assistant, throwing him inside the oven.

The baker, alarmed by the stench of the burning body, descended to the bake house, and he murdered the baker's German assistant, throwing him inside the oven.

PHILIPPINE INSURGENTS RAMPANT.
Have Seized Negros Island and Are Now Besieging Iloilo, on the Island of Panay.

London, Nov. 11.—Advices have been received at the office in this city of the Philippine Commercial Company, saying that the insurgents have taken the Island of Negros, one of the Philippine group, separated by narrow channels from Panay and Zebu, and that they are besieging Iloilo, capital of the Island of Panay, and the second largest port in the Philippines.

The newspapers assert that the Government of Spain is sending instructions to its Commissioners at Paris not to yield on the question of Spanish sovereignty over the Philippine Islands, which is asserted to be entirely outside of the protocol, and it is added, the Commissioners are therefore not authorized to discuss it. It is further asserted that the Spanish Government will declare that it has not been authorized by the Cortes to negotiate the cession of the Philippine Islands.

The Liberal advises the Spanish Peace Commissioners to leave Paris after lodging a protest against the demands of the Americans. The Spanish newspapers are angry at the Marquis of Salisbury, whose speech at the Guild Hall banquet on Wednesday night they declare to have been "merely a glorification of brute strength and a denial of the rights of the weak."

NEGROES AGAIN CAUSE TROUBLE.

Colored Non-Union Miners Practice Shooting at Passing Whites at Pansy, Ill.

Pansy, Ill., Nov. 11.—The imported negro non-union miners here are becoming reckless, and the union white miners are growing restless. Troop B of Bloomington remains on duty here, but almost nightly in the "Flat Hill" district the negro residents practice shooting at any white man that passes. The negroes have been heavily armed by the mine operators. Last night the residences of several white miners were shot into by Winchester's in the hands of the colored men. A white widow's cottage was pierced repeatedly by bullets, several charges barely missing her three children. The militia say they cannot approach the culprits.

Capt. T. P. Butler, in command, is apparently acting entirely under orders of Sheriff Coburn and not following the instructions of Governor Tanner, given before election. Capt. Butler, when asked to disarm the negroes, said it was useless for the sheriff would arm them again. It is reported that a large contingent of outside union white miners will soon arrive in Pansy. A contingent of 100 rifles was received here to-day by white citizens, who intend protecting their property and families, claiming no protection is given them by the sheriff or troops.

Kitchener Visits Salisbury.
London, Nov. 11.—The Cabinet held a meeting of two hours yesterday afternoon. General Kitchener paid a visit to the Foreign Office afterward, and subsequently to Lord Salisbury and his son, Viscount Cranborne, called at the United States Embassy, asking an interview with Mr. White, Charge d'Affaires.

LOCKIE'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Visited Toronto Yesterday Afternoon and Went Home on the Late Train to Die.

Waterloo, Ont., Nov. 11.—Mr. James Lockie died suddenly to-night. The cause of his death is supposed to have been pneumonia. The deceased gentleman was 68 years of age. He was a visitor to Toronto to-day, returning home on the late train. He attended the regular meeting of the Berlin-Waterloo Hospital Board this morning, and while on his way home he complained of feeling unwell. Shortly after reaching the house he was able to walk up and lay down on a sofa, expiring a few minutes afterwards.

Mr. Lockie was highly esteemed and widely known. For many years he ably filled the position of Inspector for the Mercantile Fire Insurance Co. of this town, and later on became its secretary. When Mr. Lockie was in Toronto about 3 years ago Mr. Lockie was elected president of the Waterloo Horticultural Society and a prominent member of the Berlin-Waterloo Hospital Board. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon.

The late Fanny Day's portrait, was auctioneered to send her work to this office. At the time of her death she was writing from the Queen's Hotel: "Accept my thanks for your very satisfactory manner in which you executed my work entrusted to your firm." H. THEY COVERED THEIR TRACKS

How the Ottawa Government Disguised the Mismanagement of Yukon Affairs—Original Report of Major Walsh "Garbled" by Cabinet Members—A Cook-and-Bull Story—Woman Hange Herself—Montreal News.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The following case will show how carefully the Ottawa Government cover up their tracks in connection with the mismanagement of affairs in the Yukon. The facts given below are absolutely correct and will not be denied by the head of the Department of the Interior. It will be remembered that when Major Walsh's report was published the other day the press generally commented upon the ex-commissioner's silence regarding the mining regulations put into force by the Government of the day.

Murder, however, will out, for it now transpires that when the Major's report was first prepared it contained a more or less severe condemnation of the regulations in question. This part of the report, however, was of a very unscientific nature to the members of the Cabinet whose Yukon policy had been so roundly denounced, and steps were immediately taken to modify or "garble" the original report.

It would never do to show to the country that they were condemned out of the mouth of their own commissioner, hence the changed report, which saw the light of day, and which is quite different from the one first submitted by Major Walsh.

Miquelon Island Fortifications.
The people are splitting their sides over the cook and bull story wired here from Toronto regarding big forts and garrisons at St. Pierre, Miquelon. A Montreal gentleman, who spent a winter on the Miquelon Islands, disbelieves the report regarding fortifications there. When he was at Miquelon the only fortifications there were near the military prison. They comprised a few guns mounted on a very high rock, so placed as to command the sea on both sides. While the island could be well fortified, it was not so when he was there. For effective service the guns were mounted too high, and would not hinder an enemy from obtaining a foothold on the island itself.

Suits Against The Herald.
Chief of Police Hughes has asked for a warrant, charging Mr. Briery of The Herald with criminal libel, the article in question appearing in last evening's edition. Mr. La Forest of the Water Department has also entered civil suits against the same paper. Some time ago, when The Herald started a campaign against Mayor Prefontaine, His Worship's friends blamed Hon. G. W. Stephens for instigating these attacks, but they now declare that Hon. Sidney Fisher is the man.

Notes.
This morning the Court of Revision annulled the election of Mr. Blanchard, Liberal M. L. A. for Vercheres, but the personal charges were dismissed, as unproved. The Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen left this morning for Quebec.

Man, who gave his house as No. 119 East 125th-street, was held. A small Galt, which Lewis said was a revolver, caused him to be held. As the police were taken downstairs, the greengoods man said: "This thing of extending your trade to foreign countries is all rot."

ROMANCE OF A LONDONER.
Goes to New York to Marry and is Captured by Fakirs.

Offered "Green Goods" at Ten Cents on the Dollar, But Wanted to Try Before He'd Buy—Causes a Big Racket and Both Land in Jail—The Mysterious A 83—How Dan Lewis Was Trapped.

New York, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—In London, Ont., things are a trifle provincial. Last summer a greengoods man wandered into London. He said: "This is easy. While there he met Daniel Lewis and asked Daniel as a man who ought to be made a millionaire. Lewis said he would give several thousand dollars of 'McNally' money to go housekeeping on."

The greengoods man was taking his vacation when he saw Daniel and decided that the Canadian should be made aware of the easy way to make a fortune. When he returned to the city he "sicked" a matrimonial agency onto Daniel.

The agency sent a circular and the picture of a girl "worth money" who had heard of Daniel and wanted to be his bride. "That they sent to him another letter, with a photograph of a handsome widow with money. Then the greengoods man sent to Daniel a letter offering $4000 in "Treasury notes, made from a stolen plate," for $300 cash.

With two women of means waiting to wed him, and a man waiting to sell money to him for less than 10 cents on the dollar, Daniel fell. He winked mysteriously at his friends in Canada, and became a triple "come on."

Arrived in New York.
On last Thursday Daniel arrived in this city, and was met at the station by a man who knew him at once. Daniel was taken to the Putnam House, and remained there until yesterday.

Business was looking at the "Turning Joint," and Daniel, after all was so "easy" that he could not wait for planning. When his "friend" left him at the hotel Daniel was told to remember that a man would say "A 83" to him.

"A 83" called on Daniel to-day, and said he was Willis Parker. He took Daniel into the bar, displayed a roll of sample $10 bills, and passed one on the unsuspecting bar tender, and one on the man who runs the cigar stand.

"It's too easy," said Parker, as he took Daniel into the lions' den, the same being a room in Lexington-avenue, near Twenty-sixth-street. There Parker asked how much of the stuff he wanted.

Daniel said he would try $34, and if it went all right he would take more.

Who Made Him Wise?
"Who made you wise?" asked Parker. "I was wise enough not to buy a whole lot of money till I see if I can pass $24 worth of it," said the "come-on," and the pair got to "canning" each other names.

"The idea of your wasting a business man's time for $34," shouted Parker, as the pair went out on the sidewalk. Then they quarrelled until a policeman came around the corner. In answer to the policeman's request for an explanation, the Canuck stranger, Mr. Constable, I came down here to get married. A girl down here sent me her photograph and this man here wants me to buy some of his counterfeit money. Now I am willing to take $34 on trial, but I'll be doggone if I am going to buy $300 in a lump."

WHI Know Better Next Time.
The policeman arrested both. In the Yorkville Court Parker, whose alias is Hoff-
