A Great Anglo-American Feast at Quebec.

Splendid Reception of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

"God Save the Queen" and "Yankee Doodle"-Senator Fairbanks' Gracious Remarks.

Quebec, Oct. 5.—The lights of Anglo-American brotherhood are trimmed and burning brightly on this city set on a hill, so that all the world may see them. The significance of yesterday's recep-tion in the citadel of Quebec to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts can scarcely be over-

A SIGNIFICANT SPECTACLE. The warships of both nations lay side by side in the St. Lawrence, the flags of both people flew from every point of vantage, the French-Canadian students sang "Yankee Doodle," and sang it the more heartily because Major Duches-ney, the captain of the Ancients, is a French-Canadian. The commissioners of the two nations who are now engaged in drafting a treaty that will, it is confidently hoped, end forever friction of a serious nature between England in Europe and England in America, adjourned their proceedings for the purpose of being present. The speeches of Lord Aberdeen, Major-General Hutton and Major Duchesney breathed sentiments of the utmos goodwill, and a culmination of the feeling of fellowship came when the British soldiers swung their helmets in the air and gave three cheers for the president of the United States, and the Americans, swinging their helmets in turn, gave three and a tiger for Queen Victoria.

THE STUDENTS SERENADE. At 10 o'clock the students of Laval University marched up to the Dufferin Terrace and serenaded the visitors with such national airs as the "Marseillaise," "Vive le Canadienne," "O, Canada." A scene of extraordinary enthuslasm occurred when the Ancients, in acknowledgment of the courtesy, lined up, and, led by Col. Supplee, of Baltimore, sang "The "Star-Spangled Banner," and a verse each of "God Save the Queen" and "My Country, 'Tis of Thee.' with which the national anthems of both countries were greeted must have been heard all over Quebec, and on the warships out in the stream flying the flags of the two powers.

At the close of the students' entertainment, which closed with the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Felthe band of the Ancients took up the parable by playing a variation of the national anthems of Britain and America.

MAJOR-GENERAL HUTTON.

At 10:45 the company paraded in full uniform, and, headed by their band, marched to the citadel, where they formed up in review order for inspec-tion by Major-Gen. Hutton. At the close of the inspection Gen. Hutton fermally welcomed the company, and Major Duchesney, the commander, replied. At the close of Major Duchesney's remarks, Gen. Hutton gave an order, and the British artillerymen raised their helmets, and, whirling them around their heads, gave three cheers for the president of the United States. The Ancients in turn swung ity of all the constituencies repretheir helmets, and gave three, with an added tiger, for Queen Victoria. The old Bunker Hill gun on the parade ground, around which the ancestors of the cheering British and Americans fought a century and a quarter ago, blinked approvingly in the sunshine. The viceregal party and the invited guests retired, and the Ancients spent an hour viewing the citadel, after which they marched down to their quarters, headed by the bands of the Eighth Rifles and Ninth Voltigeurs, of

THE LUNCHEON. Subsequently their excellencies en-tertained the international commissioners and their ladies and the officers of the visiting corps to funcheon in the vice-regal residence. The repast was laid in the large reception room, about 100 guests being present. After the health of the Queen and the president of the United States had been drunk, his excellency proposed the toast of the Ancient and Honorable

Artillery Company. THE BANQUET. The banquet of the Ancients at the Frontenac was made the occasion of another great international gathering. The banquet hall of the Frontenac was decorated with the banners of the Ancients, and the flags of the United $3 75 per cwt. The market for stockers | States and Great Britain. Places were laid for over 400 persons, including some 75 guests. Major Duchesney had including on his right the governor-general, on his teft Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The toast of "The President of the United States" was replied to by Senator Fairbanks, with great eloquence. After speaking of United States presidents, he added words of the highest compliment to Lord Aberdeen, for, he said, "you would almost take him for $4 15; thick fat at $4 25 per cwt, and an American." Of Sir Wilfrid Laurier also he spoke in warm praise as the James G. Blaine of Canada, In closing, the senator said there were before him the representatives of two great nations, the two greatest nations of the world today, whose representatives were now engaged in Quebec trying to way questions of an international character. A few weeks ago the people of the U.S. had been settling questions at the south in another way, but he liked this way best. (Cheers.) When the United States resolved that the only alternative to the condition of affairs in Cuba was war, there was ser-ious apprehension throughout the world, and but little sympathy was expressed in any quarter save one. He knew, his hearers knew, the people of the United States knew, that there was one great power whose prayers for the triumph of the Stars and Stripes -(cheers)-and that power was the Kingdom of Great Britain. The people of the United States would be false to themselves, false to their traditions, false to their blood, if they ever forgot that sympathy. (Prolonged cheers.) Lord Aberdeen and Sir Wilfrid Laurfer also spoke eloquently.

A DINNER PILL. - Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a son to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correc-tives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indiges-

"That this meeting desires to acknowledge with great pleasure the many congratulations received in view of the victory, manifesting, as they do, the wide-spread interest taken in the recent campaign, and the satisfac-tion with which the friends of moral reform in different countries, hail the fact that the people of the Dominion of Canada are resolved to rid their country of the wrong and shame of legislation sustaining the liquor traf-

"That the secretary be instructed to write immediately to the different provincial campaign committees urging them all to perfect and make peranent their provincial and local organizations, so as to unite the prohibitionists in wise and earnest work, following up the advantage that has been gained, until a law of total prohibition is thoroughly enforced in every part of Canada, to make arrangements for a deputation representing the prohibitionists of the Dominion to wait upon the government as soon as practicable after full returns are received, to call attention to the majority recorded in favor of prohibition, and ask for the speedy em-bodiment of the will of the people in definite and effective legislation.

"That this executive committee desires to place on record its high appreciation of the loyalty, earnestness and ability of the workers in the different provinces who so harmoniously and effectively united to secure the expression of public opinion in favor of prohibition, that has been so generally and unmistakatly made."
