

CANADIAN on leaves CASUALTIES

erman militarism. Aid. Robbins expressed his faith in utive committee it was decided to do-nate the sum of $50 to the British of Drive.

The campaign will be continued would cause discouragement the fighters. A condition of affairs was needed that would tell every man HAMILTON'S HEART who has not done his most in the war that Canada is a British country. is to the prime minister we owe the credit of union government," said Sir Edward: "He persevered until he succeeded

Sir Edward reviewed the history of Obtained in First Day

wards coalition, and said the opposition depended upon alien enemies for election. "Imagine what the condi-tions would be if a party like that got into power," he said. "We didn't want men who were sympathizing with Germans voting, so we distranchised them, and besides that, we tish Red Cross is the hand of tender-brought in an act giving the women ness, reached across the seas to be who, have men at the front the vote."

time government only, and is for the se of directing matters bearing purpe upon the war. Speaking of the con-scription bill, he asked: "Is it fair that one family should give seven sons and its neighbor none?" (Whole audience, "No.")

Canadians overseas, there had been are in the first drive. created a new portfolio, that of minwith unabated vigor today, and when ister of militia overseas, he said. in the factory returns are received to. explaining his appointment. It re-mained for the constituency he repre-desired goal will be in sight. sented to say as to how soon he went England. "We must fight this war to a finish until victory is won." habula

Blames Sir Wilfrid.

Edmund Bristol, M.P., said: "I tl ink this election is a national crime. We are facing the greatest fight in our history." He then proceeded to lay the blame upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his followers for bringing the election about. Instead of devoting the war, Canada was entering upon its entire time to the prosection of the war, Canada was entering upon two months of election campaign. "If our friends in Quebec think so much of their language why don't they go and fight for it?" he asked, amid applause. "Until the election is over do not ne-slect to de your work for the Borden candidates," said Mr. Bristol, "for Sir Robert needs your hearty support and the support of out-and-out win-the-war candidates." Mayor Church said he was a supporter of Sir Robert Borden and his national government. "I have no politics at this time but the soldier," he said. He eulogized the work accomplished by the late government, and altho mistakes had been made they were rew when the great tasks at hand were considered. "I am nut sgreed with the present form of gov-ernment," said the mayor, "but I will support Sir Robert Borden, because he has done so much in this war." Ald. Ball spoke briefly in support of the Borden policies and union govern-ment.

ment. Col. Noel Marshall spoke briefly, mere-ly stating that the one question on his mind at the present concerned the Red Cross Soriety, which he hoped would re-

Aid. Roomans expressed as and a disgrace Any man or comportion, and the pled confidence in his leader, and he pled confidence in his leader confidence in her second the confidence in the second confidence of the wars her signal of heated distance of the confidence in the solution of affadrs would confidence in her second will be forwarded on to the minister was the signal of heated distance would confidence in the new government in the present that the morale of the German navy is weak. The military authorities have trusted this condition of affairs would be overcome by the new government. "Unionism is an experiment," he said, "but we must give it a fair trial." There were many reasons why the union government was justified, he children who leave school at-16 to be maintained, and in his opinion the back, as was also that caning for the to true and characteristically German treatment, the Austrian submarine is also that caning for the to true and characteristically German treatment, the Austrian submarine cannot be an a purely party election cared for by the government in those cared for by the governme fleet may well have its mainspring in an attempted diversion to compel the allies to loosen their grip on Pola and the Austrian navy.

absolutely finished and everything Field Marshal Haig is waiting for the plain of Roulers to dry a little cleared away by Wednesday next. TRUE TO RED CROSS before marching the British infantry across its expanse. The British now in regard to this Rosedale vialuate, bold practically all of the last ridge in Belgium, called the Passchendaele, but they have still to subdue the Houthulst Wood, its northern pillar. The stated yesterday that it was rapidly the regime to the passes of the pas nearing enemy has so strongly fortified this last position that it is deemed impregthe late government and the efforts that had previously been made to-that had previously been made toas to conduct a wheeling movement, so it would not be surprising if he launched his next big attack south of the road to Menin. The loss of this sector as far as the Lys, by the Germans, would place Lille in danger of of a lighting system might cause still envelopment. The German army is practically immobilized and if good for- more delay. tune should attend the British army, Field Marshal Haig has a chance of that during the following week at the Hamilton, Friday, Oct. 19 .- "The Bri- winning a smashing victory, crippling to German aspirations.

The Italians are continuing their siege work of the eastern and southern slopes of Monte San Gabriele. The enemy is thoroly alive to the board of control toward this great War-time Government. Sir Edward emphasized the point that the union government is a war-that the union government is a wargave the above beauting dennition of the work being carried out under the Geneva flag on all the allied battle fronts he must have touched a respon-weep forward from the Bainsizza Plateau, east of San Gabriele and set last moment. The loss of the whole of Monte San Gabriele would bring rail and pave the 1700 feet so as to sweep forward from the Bainsizza Plateau, east of San Gabriele, and get or whether it is to stand idle for per sive chord in the heants of Hamilton. Sweep for which from the Damstran position. Their patrols yesterday got in a little haps another year. Controller Foster ians, for when the first returns of the behind the whole Austrian position. Their patrols yesterday got in a little haps another year. Controller Foster is 100,000 British Red Cross campaign closer to the last slopes of San Gabriele and made prisoners in brisk enans, for when the first reduits of the last slopes of San Gabriele and made prisoners in brisk en-$100,000 British Red Cross campaign were totaled up last night the news rang out that $65,000 had been se-Hermada Plateau, is also galling the Austrians. The Austrians tried to the alies defeated all expected back almost any day from some magnificent jewels and some Hermada Plateau, is also galling the Austrians. The Austrians tried to relax the pressure a little by counter-attacks, but the allies defeated all these attempts and continued their relentless pressure. The greatness of the peril to the enemy has induced him to move up forty divisions from the Russian and Rumanian fronts. The Austrians have also fallen back ten miles in Galicia to secure a line of defence that they can weakly hold. miles in Galicia to secure a line of defence that they can weakly hold.

Ann Fittwood's Interpretation feaves nothing to be desired. Only Title Retained. An entirely new production, entitled "The eBst Show in Town," will be at the Gayety Theatre week. Jas. E. Cooper, the well-known burlesque producer, has surpassed himself this season in giving to the lovers of clean burlesque a production par excellence. The company is headed by those versatile comedians, Frank Hunter and Eddie Carr, and NEARLY READY Frank Hunter and Eddie Carr, and among the large and well-balanced cast will be found Bert Lahr, Lynn Canter, Clara Keating, Virginia Ware, Mattie De Loce, Isabella Sisters and the Davenports in a posing act. The entire organization is new in all its departments, and nothing but the title has been retained from last year.

Good Comedy Farce. The "Girls From the Follies" company will be the attraction at the Star Corp. D. J. Lewis, British Isles. Wounded and missing—J. A. Green A. Crosby, England; E. J. Powles, naby, B. C. Wounded—K. A. McIvor, Hazeldale, S.; R. W. Crichton, Scotland; C. D. Chie, Cornwall; S. H. Morris, Engla E. Baron, St. Marie de Blandford, D. Curtis, Curvendon, N. B.; W. England; D. Jackson, Ireland; E. Sprook, Clearwater, Man.; G. Dus Campbellton, N. B.; Lance-Corp. Caspe, Que; C. W. McGregor, Wa down, Ont.; D. Parker, Glanford Stat Ont. erection of the poles to carry the trol-The Rosedale viaduct, with the exception of a small portion of the 'pav-ing, is also finished. A gang of men are now busy o nthis, and it will be caused delay, but he was hopeful that be presented. It is a successful comedy farce that has pleased in New York and Boston, and should go down work would be about finishedby end of the week. He was not sure, however, whether the viaduct would be open for equally well with the patrons of the traffic next week, as the installation Star. The two acts are well worked out, and the Parisian origin of the There was little doubt glot is evident from the introduction of much unconventional frivolity. latest all would be complete. The public therefore await an an-Fred Binder as the "Flyman," who will "feed" but wont "fly," finds ley lines.

(Continued from Page 1).

ample outlet for his distinctive humor. Two other artists of sterling merit are Tom Robinson and Madge and costly public work; whether they DeVice, who as "Guff" and "Gauble," add materially to the rollicking galety. * Fanny Ward at Strand. "On the Level," the fine Lasky pro-duction which is being presented at the Strand during the latter half of will take it over at once and try to haps another year. Controller Foster this week, is a play with punch to it Fannie Ward is the star, and has not INFANTRY.

Killed in action-W. R. Dagg, Portag

FRID

R

Killed in action du Fort, Que. Died of wounds-W. Boulding, St. Thomas; J. Young, Burk's Falls, Ont. Died-J. C. Pratt, Montreal; Act.-Corp. D. J. Lewis, British Isles. Wounded and missing-J. A. Green, J. A. Crosby, England; E. J. Powles, Burpany will be the attraction at the Star Theatre next week, starting with matince Monday, October 22. "In the Air" is the name of the piece to the Air" is the name of the piece to Previously reported missing, now ported safe with unit—R. Brophy, C lingwood, Ont.

ARTILLERY.

Wounded-512638 G. B. Water Iamilton; C. G. Doyle, Dundas.

SERVICES

Died-A. W. Bell. Sarnia. Wounded-J. T. Bogan, Montree Robins, Newmarket; J. Laders III-55357 Act.-Sergt. R. C. Pettig

ENGINEERS.

II-D. J. Boyd, Caledonia, N. S. MOUNTED RIFLES. III-F. Fhillips, Rockwood, Ont. OMEMEE ASSISTS RED CROSS.

any woman who cares for clothes and jewelry. Regent patrons are this week en-Cross. The list is still open.

FIFTY-FIFTY WITH THE BRITISH RED CROSS The Regent Theatre, the Rialto Theatre and the Globe Theatre will give to the British Red Cross half of their total receipts for Friday afternoon and evening performances. How many more will do the same? The British Red Cross invites every theatre and motion picture house to follow suit. Recognition will be given in the evening press, if you phone Adelaide 500,000 and announce your intention to the Secretary's Department. REMEMBER THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

BRITISH RED CROSS APPEAL