Dr. Noble Defends Policy.

Dr. Noble defended the board in their building policy and the part time system, also the teaching of manual training and domestic science. He deplored the crippled state of their finances, contending that the money required should be controlled by the board and not doled out by the city council. "We should have had 13 million dollars last year instead of one million, which we received. Toronto is not a pauper, and the late premier, Geo. W. Ross, when minister of education, gave a black eye to education when he placed its funds under the control of the municipalities," said Dr. Noble. Does Good East End Business.

Member of William the Third L.O.L., No. 140, to the number of 450, attended the morning service in Riverdale Presbyterian Church, Pape avenue, yesterday. Rev. L. I. Hunter, pastor, delivered an eloquent sermon on the "Brotherhood of Man," pointing out that the time was coming that a man would be taken for what he was rather than for the amount of wealth he accumulated.

The brethren, in full regalia, headed by County Master Bro. W. H. Elliott and District Master Isaac Smith, marched in procession from Riverdale Park. There were many members from district lodges present.

Yesterday was Sunday School raily in the Methodist churches thruout the city. In the east end, Simpson Avenue Church pupils, to the number of 300, were addressed by Rev. E. B. Lanceley in the afternoon. The morning and evening services were conducted by Rev. W. E. S. Large, pastor, Thorold. Nine hundred children were present in Danforth Methodist Church, Rev. R. F. E. Large, former pastor, delivering an appropriate address. Rev. John J. Coulter, pastor, preached at the morning service, taking for his subject "A Little Child Shall Lead Them." A number of persons were baptised by the pastor at the conclusion of the service.

Hope Methodist Church was packed to capacity during the raily service, which was addressed by W. Costain, superintendent. Rev. Dr. Ferguson, pastor, preached an appropriate sermon, A young people's raily was held at the evening service, a song service being conducted under the direction of W. K. LeDrew.

For the convenience of the pastor, Rev. John J. Coulter, Danforth Methodist Church, a solid brick garage is being erected at 29 Jackman avenue, the gift of the congregation.
