LATE LOCALS

The board of management of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Seamen's Mission will meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

All members of No. 1 Co. Boys' Brigade are requested to meet at 129 Charlotte street, at eight o'clock sharp Thursday evening. Business of importance.

No. 2 storm drum was ordered to be hoisted at noon today at the signal station, custom house, indicating a storm from a westerly direction.

A special meeting of the Y. M. S. of St. Joseph is called for Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. to transact important business.

The following are the fish market prices: Cod and haddock 5 cents, halibut 15 cents, mackerel 15-25 cents, herring 10 cents per dozen, pickled 10 cents, smelts 10 cents.

The regular meeting of the Women's Bible class will be held in the school room of St. John's (Stone) church at 2.45 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. All women are welcome.

The police were called to Grace Beechman's house, on Sheffield street, last night, to eject Allen McLaughlin, but the offender had made good his escape before the officer arrived.

The special evangelistic meetings in the Coburg street Christian church will be continued every night till Sunday night. A good audience was present last night, and the Rev. T. H. Bates preached an able sermon on Christ the Head of the Church, Baptist Sunday night. Tonight the sermon will be to young Christians.

Edward Hedgley has been reported at police headquarters for assaulting Vernon Sanderson on a scow lying near Market place, west end. The trouble is said to have begun in a dispute, and words proved ineffectual Hedgley is said to have kicked Sanderson on the legs and applied a wooden cudgel rather unsparingly.

CAPT. BREEN'S SCHOONER

The American schooner Lizzie H. Patrick arrived in port this morning from Liverpool, Conn. Captain Breen recently purchased the schooner to take the place of the wrecked schooner Ella G. Edie, which was wrecked on the New England coast some time ago, when the captain nearly lost his life and several of his crew were drowned.

SCHOONER IN DISTRESS

Tag Lord Walsley, Captain Wiley, arrived this morning in port from Michoud, Maine, with the disabled schooner Horace G. Morse, Captain Kearney, in tow. The tug was on her way to Amherst, N. S., with the schooner, but put in on account of stress of weather, the wind in the bay being strong from the southeast, with high sea running.

Captain Wiley, thinking the schooner could not stand much rough weather in her present condition, put into this port for safety.

The Morse was on her way to Amherst, N. S., from Savannah, Georgia, with a cargo of pitch pine for Rhodes & Curry. She went ashore at Hog Island, Machineport, breaking her keel and filling with water. After discharging her deck load she was hoisted.

The tug Lord Kitchener will tow the schooner from this port to Amherst and will sail the first chance. She is now at the east side of the I. C. R. wharf.

POLICE COURT

At the police court this morning Thomas Furlong, arrested on a warrant for assaulting his son, was remanded for further hearing.

Joseph Carr, charged with drunkenness and resisting the police, was sentenced to 88 fine or two months on the first charge and four months without a fine on the second.

Harry Smith was remanded on a charge of drunkenness. Hugh McAdam, also charged with drunkenness, was fine $4 or ten days in jail. John Mulren, one of the participants in the street brawl referred to in another column of this issue, was arrested this morning.

TO WELCOME "TIP" O'NEILL

Arrangements Being Made for a Demonstration for the World's Champion Baseballist.

Efforts are being made by a number of sporting men in the city to raise funds to hold a fitting celebration for the homecoming of John (Tip) O'Neill, who is now a world's champion in the baseball ranks.

FIGURED IN STREET FIGHT

Three Men Disgraced Themselves on Union Street Yesterday Afternoon.

One of the most disgraceful brawls that has occurred on the streets of St. John for many years, took place yesterday before John Quigley, Andrew Stack and James McCaulon were placed under arrest on charges of fighting and using profane and obscene language.

The charges against McCaulon for resisting has not yet been disposed of, and the young man, with Quigley and Stack, is lodged in jail.

The police say that the conduct of the men and the language in which they indulged was shocking and disgraceful, and the opinion was expressed this morning that such heinous penalties could easily have been imposed.

The magistrate observed that both Quigley and Stack had figured in police circles before and had only themselves to blame if they were obliged to serve a term in jail.

PRACTICAL-HELP FOR SUMMERSIDE

Rev. Mr. Bates, of Summerside, who has been holding a series of special services in the Coburg street Christian church, received a very pleasant surprise this morning.

It came in the form of a check for $244.98, the proceeds of a collection taken at the convention of the Christian Church in Summerside, of which Mr. Bates is now pastor. The old building was worth about $4,000 and insured for $1,000.

Regarding conditions in Summerside, Mr. Bates is informed by private letters that 300 families are homeless and that a relief fund has been started.

Touching the suggestion of the Charlotte town Guardian that St. John might properly repay the kindness of Summerside in 1871, Mr. Bates states that he is going to Summerside on Saturday and would gladly take to the mayor any relief funds that might be subscribed in St. John. He is the guest while here of Rev. Mr. Floyd, pastor of Coburg street church.

Business Notices

There will be an illustrated temperance lecture given in Union Hall, Thursday evening. Mayor Sears will act as chairman.

Attention is called to the advertisement of E. O. Parsons, on page three today. The announcement of a money-saving sale is made and it should interest all economically inclined. The announcement is worth a reading.

Two thousand yards of Louisiana silk---about a mile and a quarter---is the bargain feature at M. R. A.'s tomorrow. There may be enough to keep the sale going until supper time, and yet it is quite possible Monday will see the finish of it.

PARLOR SUITE SNAPS. Readers of the Times will be interested in the advertisement of Amhand Bros. Ltd. in this issue, as they are now offering their beautiful stock of high-class parlor suites and couches, which were made on their own premises at prices to suit everyone. They are selling handsome parlor suites from $25.00 up. Couches from $20.00 up.

HE IS OUT FOR BIGGER MONEY. A young man enrolled for a night course in February 20th, last. He was then earning $340 per year. On the 22nd of this month this young man was selected by the employment bureau for a position at $460 per year. It took him just eight months of his spare evenings to qualify for a three hundred dollar raise of salary and there are scores of other clerks whom the Currie Business University can do the same for.

2,000 YARDS LOUISINE SILK. 37c.

One of the Daintiest Fabrics Imaginable for Shirtwaists, Party Dresses, Etc., Only

Tomorrow Morning in Silk Room

THIRTY-SEVEN CENTS IS ANYBODY AND EVERYBODY'S PRICE. Therefore we anticipate a merry snipping of scissors and hurrying of cash carriers when this Louisine is exposed for sale in the morning. The price is not low because of defects in the goods---indeed it is a fine quality of silk---but represents one of those shopping propositions made possible by watchful marketing on the other side of the ocean. St. John ladies will recollect similar sales at our stores, and how genuine were the bargains they got.

- In White, In Maize, In Rose Pink, In Cream, In Cardinal, In Black, In Mid. Brown, In Ciel Blue, In Saxe Blue, In Navy Blue, In Reseda.

From 3 1-2 to 5 yards will make a very dressy waist, and we usually sell 15 yds. and upwards for costumes. Figure this out and note the bargains you can get.
