

New Brunswick Men Give Lives

Casualty List Again An Argument For Prompt Reinforcements For Overseas Forces

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. D. Prince, of Hampton, received word recently from Ottawa notifying them that their son Wilfred S. Prince has died of wounds received in action. He left Hampton in the 110th battalion, and was drafted into the famous 20th regiment. He is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Prince to have made the supreme sacrifice in France. The other son, Edgar, who left New Brunswick with the 6th C. M. R., was killed in action on the Somme in October 1916. Still another brother offered his services for the 26th but was rejected.

Both heroes leave besides a sorrowing mother and father, five brothers, two sisters and a host of friends who will regret to hear that still another New Brunswick family has been called upon to mourn the loss of two brave sons. Two Died in Northumberland. Chatham, N. B., Nov. 19.—(Special)—Another of Chatham's young soldier boys has laid his life down for his king and country, Vincent Flanagan, oldest son of Roger Flanagan, proprietor of the Bower house, passed away at his father's home this morning. He went over to England at the outbreak of the war and joined the Royal Home artillery and served with that branch of His Majesty's forces for over two years and passed through some of the worst experiences of the great war. He was severely wounded and gassed and only arrived home about one month ago. He was still in a very critical condition, his spine being injured and was subject to weak spells.

NEW YORK VIEW OF OUR VICTORY LOAN

(New York Commercial.) Canada's fourth Victory Loan of $150,000,000, bearing five and one-half per cent interest is now being offered to the people of the dominion, and an over-subscription of equal amount is sought. The entire proceeds of this loan will be used to finance the export trade of the dominion, consisting chiefly of supplies and munitions of war for Great Britain. Hitherto the British government has bought and paid for such supplies, but this arrangement has come to an end, and Canada must finance such trades or lose the business. Hereafter Canada must sell to the mother country on credit and cloth, feed and equip her own overseas armies.

This Victory Loan should be a great success. Canadian farmers have reaped a golden harvest for three years and could easily take up the whole issue. Business has been good and will continue to be, if the products of the mills, mines, factories and farms find a cash market. The bonds are well secured by the promises to pay of the British government which will be received for supplies and by the taxing power of the whole dominion. The terms of subscription are easy and the income return is high. The Canadian people must pay the taxes in any event and the burden will be much lighter if they hold the bonds instead of forcing their government to borrow the money at high interest in the United States.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN ENGLAND

(Special Cable to Times by F. A. McKenzie. Copyright.) London, Nov. 19.—Hourly it becomes more evident that the main issue before the statesmen is complete pooling of all reserves but such pooling meets considerable resistance in some official circles where it is feared it may force us into measures not acceptable to some people here. Lloyd George's speech and Lord Northcliffe's letter both were dictated by the need of bringing home to the mass of the nation the absolute inevitableness of pooling. There is seemingly no conflict between the premier and Northcliffe. The first wave of criticism against

New December Numbers of Columbia Records

When Lazaro sings "Laugh, laugh, Pagliaccio!" It is more than words or song or acting. His "Veni la Giubba" is the breaking of a heart in music. Sorrow beyond words, hidden beneath a smiling mask to face the call of duty—what one of us has not sometimes laughed with Pagliaccio? Lazaro, Metropolitan Opera tenor, in this appealing record has made his singing live. 49020—$3.00.

THE records individually mentioned are only a few of the splendid Christmas list of Columbia Records. It includes many other operatic numbers, 22 new popular song hits, 14 whirlwind dance numbers, patriotic songs, fairy stories for the children, and a number of beautiful Christmas carols and hymns.

Stracciaris song of love and hate. Love struggling with hate in dramatic melody—that is the theme of "Zita" from Verdi's "Masked Ball." A song that requires much of the artist, and in this record Stracciaris, leading baritone of the Chicago Opera, has given of his art in full measure. 49221—$1.50. Barrientos, crystal clear in Lakme's Bell Song. Soaring joyously through the bell-like notes of "Delibes" lyric, Barrientos makes music more musical by the matchless cadence of her voice. A record in which the great soprano of the Metropolitan Opera surpasses herself. 49151—$3.00.

Patriotic Numbers. It's a Long Way to Berlin, But We'll Get There! So Long Mother! (A2381) 85c; are typical songs for "Our Boys" but they are no better than "When We Wind Up the Watch on the Rhine" and "The Old Grey Mare" (A2382) 85c. The list also includes many striking, popular melodies such as "The Best Things in Life are Free" and "For You a Rose" (A2379), 85c; also two selections from "Cheer Up!" the New York Hippodrome's latest production, "Cheer Up Lisa" and "Melody Land" (A2394) 85c.
