

money. The plenteous harvest will have placed many in more affluent circumstances; and it is to be hoped that they will evince their gratitude to God when the Colporteur next visits them, by furnishing each member of their families with a copy of the blessed Bible.

The sum of £5 stg. has been remitted to the British and Foreign Bible Society by the Ladies' Bible Association, and the Bath and Demorestville branches have voted, the former $10:25, and the latter $8:95, to the same.

In conclusion, let our hearts overflow with gratitude to the God of Providence for an abundant harvest, for increased and increasing prosperity in trade and commerce, for exemption from malignant diseases which have been permitted to devastate other lands; in short, for innumerable personal, domestic, social, and political advantages; and let these impel each one of us to devote ourselves with more singleness of purpose to the service of the Lord who bought us with His own blood, to pray for the prosperity of Zion with more ardor and perseverance, and to give to His cause with more liberality and cheerfulness.

Thus we may confidently hope for a revival of true religion amongst us, and that our souls shall prosper and be in health.
