ALL READY TO ARREST CRIPPEN AND THE GIRL

Father Point, P. Q., July 30—Inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Laurentide. With his arrival rumors have been cleared as to the positive identity of the two suspects on the steamer Montrose, traveling as Rev. Mr. Robinson and son, but who are in reality Dr. Hawley Crippen and Miss Le-Neve, fugitives from justice, in connection with the murder of Crippen's wife.

These two are becoming more nervous as the boat nears land, according to the wireless despatches, but are as yet unaware of their impending arrest, which will take place when the steamer docks, expected to be Sunday morning.

DENTIST AND WIFE CHARGED WITH FRAUD

New York, July 30—Policemen Roddy and Murray, of Brooklyn Headquarters, have been detailed to investigate the source of two anonymous letters which have been received by the department in connection with the case of Dr. Henry Bradley Keeler and Emma Keeler, who have been arrested on the charge of swindling Mrs. Wilhelmina Lynch, of No. 24 Vernon avenue, Brooklyn, out of $14,000. The police are working to ascertain if Keeler has been involved in other similar cases.

The two prisoners were arraigned before Judge Fawcett, in the County Court, and were without bail. Keeler remains absent, but the police assert that Mrs. Keeler has given some valuable information; she told the police that her maiden name was Emma Cullen, that she was born in Nevada and has lived in San Francisco the greater part of her life. She said she also has wealthy relatives in that city.
