

LAWYERS HAVE OWN CASES REVIEWED

Bring Auto Speeding Matters Before Judge Barry in County Court.

Three interesting items of review of cases in which convictions on auto speeding charges had been secured in the police court of the city and Lancaster, came before Judge Barry in the County Court this morning.

The first case was that in which William R. Scott asked for a review of the decision of Magistrate Allingham, who had fined Mr. Scott $10 on a charge of exceeding the speed limit in Rotherly avenue on Sept. 2. Mr. Scott in his affidavit said that the magistrate had refused to hear his defence and that he was not guilty of the charge, as he was not in Rotherly avenue on the day in question.

W. M. Ryan, representing Magistrate Allingham, took objection, arguing that the return of the court showed the note "No defence" and the defendant had no right to attack this by affidavit.

After some argument it was decided, with the consent of all concerned, that the case would go back to allow Mr. Scott to present his defence. Tonight at eight o'clock was agreed upon.

In the second case, Mr. Scott appeared in behalf of Oliver W. Wood, who asked a review of his case, in which a fine of $10 had been imposed by Magistrate Allingham on a similar charge. The case was postponed for a time to allow Mr. Scott to procure an affidavit to the effect that a full and true copy of his case, in which a fine of $10 had been imposed by Magistrate Allingham on a similar charge, was sent to the County Court Judge, R. B. D., whereas the order had been made by the County Court Judge, Mr. Ryan said that he had cautioned Mr. Scott about making the affidavit, but that he had prepared the proper service had not been made and therefore dismissed the case.

Conviction Quashed. S. H. Hinton conducted his own case in the matter of a review of a case of exceeding the speed limit in city streets in which he had been convicted by Magistrate Henderson and fined $10 in the police court. Mr. Hinton argued that the magistrate had no jurisdiction. The charge he asked exceeding the speed limit, while there was no such offense in the city by laws. W. H. Harrison, representing the police, argued that Judge Barry upheld Mr. Hinton's contention and ordered the conviction quashed.

FLORIDA CITY FIGHTS CROKER WILL

West Palm Beach Renews Claim for Alleged Civic Bequests.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Nov. 2.—Another fight is in prospect for Mrs. Bula Edmondson Croker, widow of the former Tammany chieftain, if she would hold the estate which she has successfully defended in suits brought by the Croker children, who were ignored in the document which the politician signed just before his death in Ireland.

This is prompted by the filing of a petition by Joseph Mendell, Mayor of West Palm Beach, and W. E. Mager, treasurer of the local Y. W. C. A., who obtained an order from Probate Judge Robbins instructing the First National Bank of West Palm Beach to hold an alleged trust will and testament of Richard Croker, with other papers which are in a safe deposit box within the bank, until the second week in November, when they are to be opened in court. The petitioners claim that in this will are many bequests to West Palm Beach civic institutions, including a city auditorium and both the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

The will is alleged to contain a $50,000 bequest to St. Anne's Catholic Church, which is to be used for the purchase of a pipe organ with silver pipes; $100,000 to the National Democratic Club of New York City; $100,000 for the building of an auditorium on the lake front of West Palm Beach; several bequests to servants and friends here, and the residue to be equally divided among the Good Samaritan Hospital of West Palm Beach, the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

It is believed here that Mr. Croker loved West Palm Beach as much even as he loved "dear old Ireland." His investments here have been profitable, and when he died in Ireland this community felt that it had lost a friend and counselor.

The short will, dated in Ireland, which contained no provisions for institutions here in which he had always shown an interest, and also ignoring servants in his employ for many years, caused great surprise when it was filed for probate here three months after his death. A contest was instituted, but it did not reach the point of taking any testimony. The contest was suspended, it is said, because of the fight between the Croker children and the widow, local people interested in desiring to suspend action until that affair was settled.

WAIST LINE IS AGAIN IN STYLE

"Flare" Skirts Decried by London Experts of Women's Fabrics.

London, Nov. 2.—(Associated Press)—Smartly dressed women must wear "flare" skirts, modified leg-of-mutton sleeves, well defined waist lines, and must make up in "doll" fashion, according to London fashion experts. The "doll" make-up consists of a dash of red high on each cheekbone, and another dash in the middle of the forehead. This gives the fair wearer the appearance of a Dutch doll.

Shirts of the coming season, the London fashion judges have decreed, shall be so made that when the wearer walks, the skirt will fill out like a balloon, but when she stands in repose her draperies will unfold her as in a sheaf. The ultra-long skirts, so much in vogue during the last season, will be abandoned. The new circular, "flare" skirts are shorter than those of last year.

With the return of the flare to the dress, the waist line, so long ignored by fashion, reasserts itself, and the effect produced by skirt draperies that flare is further accentuated by the tendency of the upper part of the blouse or corsage, to pouch slightly over the waist.

The leg-of-mutton skirt, an old style in which the upper part is large and the waist close fitting, has been brought back to London dress-makers, and another effort will be made to popularize the high collar in being made. Olive green will be predominant color this winter, say the fashion men-tors, with an autumnal shade of brown as second choice. Some dress-makers incline to soft Persian reds and vivid hues. Extraordinary embroideries, landscapes, zoological and carpet-like designs, will be worn, and light up the browns and other more or less neutral colorings.

An ornamental pond with swans and water lilies and a background of rushes and trees, all worked in natural colorings, is not considered too flamboyant for a decoration for some gowns.

Among the hats, big picture shapes, close fitting toques, little Breton and tam-o-shanter shapes are among the most popular for the coming season. All hats will be worn well down on the head. The fashionable colors will be brown, chestnut and Havana. Only the best materials will be used.

The new autumn and winter hats are made of moire satin, panne velvet, crepe, tulle, and felt. They may be trimmed with ribbon, feathers, ostrich tips, long ostrich plumes, or cock's feathers that sweep the neck.

There will be much black millinery brightened by trimmings of silver, gold and grey colors, but trimming will not be overdone. Neatness is a foremost quality of modern millinery, but it may develop into hardness, and then a well or scarf of tulle, velvet or soft satin is a desirable corrective. Hats will not be light.

The decrease in passengers was 5,105 all told. Teams in October, 1922 were, $996.88; 1923, $778.04; increase of 218.84; in revenue $81.16. The total amount expended to date in 1923 is $85,184.48, as compared with $82,764.19 for the same period of 1922.

FIRPO GETS INVITATION TO FIGHT A GIANT

Out of Bolivia Comes Camacho, an Indian Seven-foot-two High.

Buenos Aires, Nov. 2.—Luis Angel Firpo has been invited to fight a Bolivian Indian giant who in make up is declared to resemble the descriptions given by the naturalists of the "ape man." With height of seven feet two inches and an arm spread of eight feet together with a formidable punch and great agility, the giant is said to be a perfect specimen of the natural fighting man.

According to a despatch to La Nacion from La Paz, the capital of Bolivia, the newspaper published a challenge from the trainer of the giant, who is an Indian named Camacho. He offers to fight Firpo six rounds when Firpo arrives in La Paz on his way to his home in Buenos Aires.

Camacho is 23 years old and speaks only the language of the Quichus Indians, to which tribe he belongs. In height he is 7 feet 2 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds and has a reach of 8 feet 2 inches. He is said to be a perfect specimen of the natural fighting man.
