Chas. Pioneers Gold Rush Stockades Battles Prairie Fires Kit Carson Tomahawks Forts Trappers

Universal presents The Red Blooded History Chapter Play "WINNERS of the WEST"

KIT CARSON and CAPTAIN JOHN C. FREMONT, hardest of pioneers, lead their second expedition across the Plains; marauding bands of Sioux follow a wagon train, ready to massacre the outnumbered whites; from distant California comes word that gold has been discovered. All this and more in the first installment of "WINNERS OF THE WEST," Art Acord's red-blooded continued feature of the stirring days of '49.

WHY "WINNERS OF THE WEST" WILL WIN

The popularity of the star, who is the world's champion cow-puncher. The romance and glamor of a wagon train crossing the plains and desert. The terrifying appearance of Sioux braves in war paint. The superb dare-devilry in the saddle of Art Acord, King of Cowboys. The desperate chances taken by the players on rocky cliffs and canyons. The historical importance of preserving national events for future generations.

The sinister activities of redskins in a western town in '49.

Y. M. C. A. WINS ALL BUT ONE MATCH IN OPEN TOURNAMENT

The city open wrestling tournament at the Y. M. C. A. last night was witnessed by a fair sized crowd and all the bouts were of a high order. The contestants showed skill at the game and their work was a great improvement on the showing of last year, evidencing the fact that wrestling is gaining in popularity in St. John. The Y. M. C. A. captured all the honors with the exception of the 125-pound class, in which Gordon Campbell, of the Y. M. C. I., was victorious after three hard fought bouts. In the 95-pound class Roy Boyce, of the Y. M. C. A., won from Joseph Wall, of the East End Boys' Club. In the 105-pound class Peter Murray, of the Y. M. C. A., won from Wilbur Furse, of the St. John Garrison. In four minutes and thirty seconds, Gordon Campbell won the 125-pound class contest from Ken Johnson in ten minutes, but the final bout was preceded by two hard preliminary bouts. In the first Campbell defeated Connor, the host, by the lasso eleven minutes or one minute overtime. In the second preliminary bout Campbell won from Donovan in ten minutes. In the 135-pound class Maynard McLean, of the Y. M. C. A., won from G. Sinclair, of St. George's Athletic Association, in ten minutes. In the 145-pound class Maynard McLean won again his opponent, Edna Edna. The bout lasted four minutes and forty-five seconds.

BOUT IS POSTPONED.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 21—The eight round bout between Lew Tindler, Philadelphia, lightweight, and Barney Adair, of New York, scheduled to be held here on Christmas afternoon, has been cancelled, it was announced today. Tindler injured his right hand last week in his match with Sailor Friedman, of New York, the announcement said.

500 ARRESTS MAKE CHICAGO BONE DRY

Drink of Whiskey Suddenly Becomes the Scarcest Thing in the City.

Chicago, Dec. 22—More than 500 men were under arrest and a drink of whiskey was the scarcest thing in Chicago, as a result of the long deferred drive on the "demon rum," begun by the police under orders of Chief Fitzmorris, who made it plain that the order emanated from Mayor Thompson.

Police entered the most exclusive clubs, leading hotels, cabarets and restaurants, as well as in the lowly grog shops, the moonshine dispensing parlors, and the coffee shops.

The thoroughness of the first night's raiding caused the once bright lights of the city to be dimmed tonight. Men about town, prominent club men, "loop hounds" and rounders have been duly warned. The word has gone round that no place is safe, and that the smell of liquor on one's breath is sufficient cause for arrest under the drastic enforcement of the Illinois search and seizure laws set in operation by Mayor Thompson.

Arrest of a guest at the fashionable Casino Club while one of the social events of the season was in progress, arrest of a visitor to the Actor's Equity ball in the Congress Hotel as he elighted from a cab and inadvertently let an eagle-eyed detective see that he had something of a liquid nature in his hip pocket, and the mingling of plain clothes men with those in evening dress and gowns, have convinced the people that prohibition and the search laws are really to be enforced.

James Baker, a resident of the Ambassador Hotel, and said to be the son of the owners of a leading coal company, was the man arrested at the Casino Club. Lieutenant William Shoemaker of the Detective Bureau discovered him in the cloakroom with a bottle to his lips. Shoemaker told him there was "nasty a slip."

Officials of the club said Baker was not a member and not an invited guest. He had accompanied one formally invited, it was explained.

Day Manson, a member of the "Gold Diggers" company, was on his way to offer his talents for charity when he later in the Detective Bureau—at least toward dev laws and policemen.

"The drive is on. Long may it live!" said officials charged with the law's enforcement. "At least while prohibition is law, but may that not live so long!"

"I'll continue making arrests," said Chief Fitzmorris.
