GOOD THINGS COMING

TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"WILD HONEY" AT THE IMPERIAL TREMENDOUS ANGLO-AFRICAN STORY

THE THRILLING HALF HOUR WHEN THE DAM BROKE AND FLOODED THE VALLEY

Lady Vivienne, English noblewoman, balks her father's plan to marry her to Henry Porthen, wealthy society "lowbrow." Porthen, in anger at being cheated after assisting her father financially, entices her to his country home with Freddy Sutherland, a weak-willed young man of her acquaintance. Alone in the desolate place, Pothen locks Freddy in a room and tells the girl at his mercy that she belongs to him from then on, married or not. Lady Vivienne faints and when she recovers Porthen is lying dead on the floor, while Freddy has escaped. Three years later, investigating some worthless land of hers in the Transvaal, Viv is saved from bandits by Kerry Burgess, homesteader. Then she finds Freddy Sutherland in a drunken, degraded state. Torn between love for Kerry and what seemed to be her duty to Freddy, who supposedly saved her from Porthen, she is entangled in a web of circumstances from which she is finally extracted by Fate and the law of love. The action supplies a series of breath-taking thrills, the greatest of which is Lady Vivienne's heroic rescue of her sweetheart from a destructive torrent, the most appalling film spectacle to date.—At the Imperials tonight and Tuesday. Special scale.

Here's Health!

Nobody ever suffered from eating too much bread—can you say that about any other food product? Bread is well called the staff of life because it contains needed food elements in greatest degree. And when, like Butter-Nut Bread, it contains milk in addition it's a perfect food.

Wealth!

There's economy in using Butter-Nut Bread—the large scale on which it is baked keeps down the cost of each loaf and moreover adds to the richness of the ingredients used. Measure the cost of the fuel, flour and other ingredients and Butter-Nut will be found the cheanest to use.

Happiness!

When your home starts getting Robinson's Butter-Nut Bread it is assured of a satisfying food, and at the same time you are rid of the drudgery of baking in hot weather.

The last Sunday of the July programme was observed in the city churches which have union services and next Sunday the clergymen now on holiday will relieve those who have had charge during July and the services will be held in the uniting churches on a different schedule, the church formerly being the place of the morning service will become the place of the evening service. Several visiting clergymen gave inspiring addresses in the city pulpits yesterday. Rev. H. R. Boyer, of the Baptist Temple in Halifax, conducted the services in the Ludlow street Baptist church. Rev. W. A. Cunningham again occupied the pulpit of St. David's church and Rev. E. V. Buchanan, of Mascarene, was the preacher in the Charlotte street Baptist church. Rev. P. J. E. Haslam, curate of St. Mary's church, exchanged with Rev. A. E. Gabriel, PEGIOP
