HOCKEY.

Stanley Cup Series.
Ottawa, March 14.—The world's championship and Stanley cup hockey series between Ottawa and the winners of the Pacific coast title, Vancouver, or Seattle will open in Ottawa on Monday night, March 22, according to an announcement made today by officers of the Ottawa club.

N. H. L. Closed.
Toronto, March 14.—Canadians and St. Patricks rang down the National Hockey League curtain here on Saturday night when in a listless game the Irishmen beat the once-fearful Fenians by eleven to four. The locals attempted to give the fans a run for their money, but the visitors played poor hockey.

Moncton Team Wins.
Moncton, March 14.—The Moncton Victorias defeated a combination of Halifax and Amherst players here on Saturday night, 7 to 2.

ATHLETIC.

The Olympics.
Antwerp, March 15.—Twenty-four nations have already accepted Belgium's invitation to participate in the coming Olympic games. The principal stadium is nearly completed and work has begun on the velodrome which will seat 10,000.

ICE RACING.

Horses Injured During Race.
Amherst News: Probably the last events on the local speedway were held yesterday afternoon and, although the ice was a trifle wet, nevertheless the time was good, and the spectators who flocked to the lakeside were more than satisfied with the events of the day. Two accidents occurred—one in the free-for-all, the other in B class. Nelle Oakes stopped in a crack in the ice and wrenched her shoulder very seriously, and the veterinarians state that will be three months before the little mare can again be driven. Stewart's Lady Be Sure did the same thing, but was not injured so seriously. Both horses were given permission to withdraw. Lady Be Sure fell after the finish of the first heat. Albert J. Flannigan and Baby Kip were the winners in the three respective events.

THE RING.

Wants to Meet McDonald.
Halifax Recorder: Young Grady, middleweight, who has met Joe Egan, Jackie Claire and others, is anxious to meet Roddie McDonald in Halifax. Hector McInnes is his manager, and he says he would like to have him meet McDonald before he is pitted against O'Dowd at Boston next month. If arrangements are completed the bout will take place in Halifax on March 25. Dick Hunt is desirous of a bout with Johnny McIntyre and the pair may also be matched.

Wide to Toronto.
Toronto, March 15.—Jimmie Wilde will box "Bad News" Eben of Hamilton, for a guaranteed purse of $6,500 at Windsor Armories at the end of this month or the first week in April. If Eben should not be ready, Carl Tremaine will be Wilde's opponent.

BASKETBALL.

Match in Fairville.
On Saturday evening a strenuous game of basketball was played in the gym of the Fairville Baptist church, between teams from the Fairville Methodist and Baptist churches. The Baptist team won, 13 to 4. The Baptist team was composed of: Aubrey Carrigan, Herman Finley, Ernest Huettis, Walter Neil and Lloyd Jones. The Methodist team was made up of: Chas. Brownell, Wm. McColgan, Fred Fox, James Price and Clifford Gouling. John Sime and Percy Kerrigan were referees. This is ern resorts in quest of a training camp for the Dodgers next season. The present one does not please him. For the second game with the Yankees on Thursday, Manager Robble intends to have Jeff Pfeffer and Rube Marquard in shape.

Red Sox Not For Sale.
Hot Springs, Ark., March 15.—Manager Ed Barrow of the Red Sox has made an announcement for Owner H. W. Frazee to the effect that the Boston club is not for sale. Mr. Frazee, in a telegram, stated that he had denied several stories regarding sales, but that now the club is positively not on the market. The latest aspirant to buy the club was Francis O'Neill, an old man player and who years ago did a lot of scouting for the Red Sox on the Pacific coast. Recently he has been a lieutenant of Charles Comiskey of Chicago.

Yankees vs. Reds.
Miami, Fla., March 15.—The first three days of this week should give a fair line on what the Yankees may be expected to do this season. They will try conclusions daily with the world's champion Cincinnati Reds. Pat Moran, although the Reds have been in training only a week, says he is not worrying. The Reds are all signed for 1920 except the star southpaw, Dutch Ruether, who is here with the team. Groh and Kopf, the last of the hold-outs, surrendered on Saturday. Shawkey, Queen and Thormahlen will do the pitching for the Yankees in today's game against the Reds, while Laque, Ring and Sallee will work for the latter.

Have Promising Recruits.
Columbus, Ga., March 12.—Two of the most promising recruits now with the Braves are Massachusetts boys—Horace Ford of Somerville, an infielder once with Tufts College varsity nine, and Cyril Morgan of Middleboro, a pitcher who was with the Portland club of the New England League last season. Up to the present Ford has been used at third base. He played at shortstop while at college under the coaching of Jack Slattery and played a few games in that position for the Braves last fall.

His work at that time was impressive and since coming to the training camp it has been more so. Both Grant and Stallings believe that he is good enough to remain in the big league permanently. Morgan is a rangy young fellow with a lot of speed and a style of delivery that leads one to believe he can develop a lot more. If he can stand the training and come through all right, it looks as if he, too, will stick. He did not appear any too husky when he came south but in the last ten days his physical appearance has changed wonderfully for the better. In spite of the fact that he has worked pretty hard he appears to have gained

At Last! Canadian Process makes safer, quieter brakes

LION Brake-Linings for FORD CARS

Another annoying feature of motoring is done away with by this new process, Canadian-made brake-linings.

Ford cars can be made "quiet on the brake." LION Brake-Linings are impregnated with a special frictioning compound to prolong the wear, to avoid "running smooth," to prevent chattering.

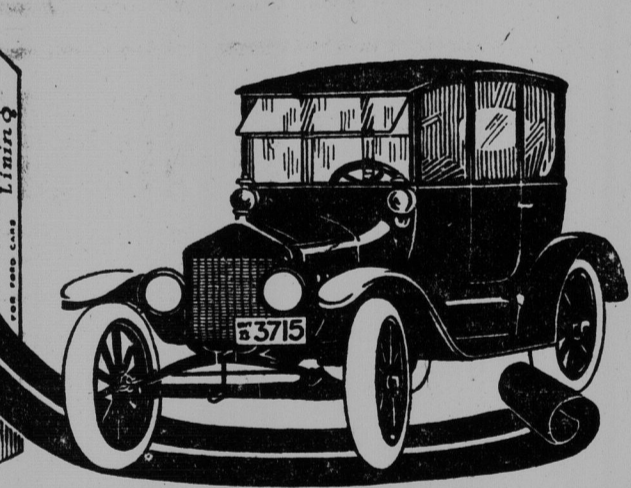

Insist on having these linings in your Ford. Your Garage man can supply you.

in weight, indicating that the "Sunny South" agreed with him.
He worked a couple of innings in the game yesterday between the regulars and the second team, which the former won by a score of four to two. The four runs were made while he was in the box, but the pitching was not responsible for them, rather to two costly "boots" in the field behind him.
Unless all signs fail, he will come pretty near up to what President Jack Donnelly of the New England League claimed for him.

Diamond Sparkles.
The catching staff of the St. Louis Browns is all lined up, Hank Severid making a special trip to the Mound City last week to sign his contract. Josh Billings and Pat Collins signed early.

Severid has recovered from his illness of last fall and looks better than ever. He won't give the other backstops much chance if he keeps his health this year. One of the players now in camp with Clark Griffith's Washington team at Tampa, Fla., is Stark, a second baseman from the Bronx. Stark was recommended to the boss of the Senators by Joe Judge.

"Red" Russell, veteran southpaw, who was released last year by the White Sox to Minneapolis, is again with "Kid" Gleason's team. He may be used as a pinch hitter, as he always was good with the stick.

Arthur Irwin, manager of the Rochester Internationals, is to make a trip to several major league training camps in the hope of getting some talent for his team.
