GENERAL CURRIE'S
TRIBUTE TO THE K.O.F.C.

The following is a copy of a letter received from General Sir A. W. Currie, by the K. of C. of the Canadian Corps, Headquarters, Canadian Corps, April 17, 1919.

To Lieut.-Col. (Rev.) W. T. Workman, C.B.E., M.C., A.D.C.S. (R.C.), 245 Oxford Street, London, W. 1.

My Dear Colonel—Before the Canadian corps finally breaks up, I wish to place on record my appreciation of the good work accomplished for the troops of the corps by the catholic army units, and in doing so I know I voice the sentiments of all of Canada's soldiers overseas.

I am, of course, more familiar with the services conducted in these units and tents than the Roman Catholic services. I also know at all other times every denomination were accorded the same cordial welcome, and that all received the same treatment as regards the free drinks, free biscuits, free smokes, free matches, and free stationery they dispensed.

To me, dear Workman, this co-operation, this each for all, and all for each spirit, so characteristic of the Canadian corps, is a wonderful and inspiring thing, and justifies one in hoping that our national life shall be characterized by a spirit of tolerance, mutual sympathy and support, unselfishness, and devotion to duty.

I am sure that those who contributed so generously to your cause will be happy in knowing how much you were able to accomplish, and with what gratitude your efforts were acknowledged.

Ever yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) A. W. CURRIE.

MORNING NEWS
OVER THE WIRES

Premier Lloyd George told the Welsh division at Amiens on last Saturday that the Germans had been informed that they must sign the peace treaty at Versailles or be compelled to do so in Berlin.

Florence Graham of New York, Eliza Delta and Eliza Hagdome of Plama, N.

Y, three nurses of the American expeditionary force, were killed in an auto accident at Chateau-Thierry on Sunday. Miss Graham's next of kin lives in Ottawa.

A memorial gymnasium to commemorate the service of students from Acadia University in the great war is to be built at a cost of about $80,000. A campaign to raise funds is to commence at once.

A nineteen-year-old girl, Miss May Kirston, Erdheim, Pa., has asked to be carried as a passenger across the Atlantic in Captain Alcock's Vimy-Vickers plane. Alcock regretted that he would have to discontinue her as his machine was only a two-seater.

In the House of Commons yesterday a vote of $28,000,000 was carried for pensions in the European war and active militia. Total casualties up to May were 63,347 killed or died, and 148,833 wounded.

A Sinn Fein M. P., Laurence Ginnell, was arrested in Dublin yesterday in connection with a speech delivered at Athlone.
