MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The Swedish steamer Torpeda foundered yesterday near Bilbao, Spain, with a loss of ten lives.

In the Ontario legislature yesterday a bill was introduced to permit the export of pulpwood from crown lands for a year.

Commodore Frank Carey, of the Tyrone, a veteran master in the C. P. R. sailing fleet, has retired. He will return to live the rest of his life in the little north of England town where he was born.

A divorce was yesterday granted in New York to two prominent society people, Robert and Alice Goetz, on grounds of cruelty.

For the third time the request of Andrew Lorne Hamilton, bank manager at Quebec, for a divorce from his wife was voted down by the senate at Ottawa.

The Roman Catholic senators did not vote on the question because of that church being opposed to divorce.

Skraffenko, accused murderer of H. M. Arnold, bank manager, formerly of Chicago, N. B., in Winnipeg yesterday said that his lawyers, Hagedorn and his friend, Westlake, who harbored him after his escape, had nothing to do with his escape from custody.

Two lives were lost yesterday in the work of saving the cargo of the City of Sydney, at Sanitro Jagers, outside Halifax harbor. Captain Daniel Burns, aged forty-six years, and Robert Snow, of the same age, were drowned when a dory capsized. Efforts to rescue the men were futile, although there were fully forty boats in the immediate vicinity at the time.

In the by-election in Three Rivers yesterday for a vacancy in the Quebec legislature, Hon. J. A. Tassier, Liberal, won with a majority of 298 over the Conservative candidate, J. A. Day.

The first attempt to lift the splinter dredge, Leonhold was made yesterday and, although not entirely successful, the work done yesterday will greatly facilitate the saving of the diver, which may be completed next week. The dredge was lifted from her resting place in the mud and moved about two hundred feet, but it was impossible to get her tumbler clear of the mud on the sides of the channel. Another hold will be taken on her with the spring tides next week.
