BIG MERGER ON LAKES

Millions in Corporation Controlling Many Vessels

Cleveland, April 26.—The stockholders of the Lackawanna Steamship Company yesterday organized the Inter-Lake Steamship Company. Thirty-nine freighters owned by various companies were combined with seventeen vessels belonging to the Old Dominion Company, which was under a receivership pending liquidation. The new company is capitalized at $6,500,000 with bonds of $3,000,000.

BULGARIA AND SERBIA REACH AGREEMENT

Paris, April 26.—A despatch to the Echo de Paris from Vienna says the correspondent learns that Bulgaria and Serbia have arrived at an amicable agreement. Serbia has abandoned her claims to the coast and other disputed territories, and the correspondent says it is hoped this will lead to an equally satisfactory agreement between Bulgaria and Greece respecting the Ionian.

DISCRIMINATION CHARGED

Quebec Board of Trade and the Manchester Line

Quebec, April 26.—The Quebec board of trade has written to the minister of trade and commerce, charging the Manchester Steamship Line with unfair discrimination against the ports of Quebec and Montreal by offering Montreal shippers a rebate of four shillings a ton on all cargoes in addition to the rebate of two shillings in the case of cargo delivered by the federation of shipping on all freight shipped direct to Montreal. The board of trade requests that the government pay no subsidy to the Manchester Line, unless this discrimination ceases.

ROUND-WORLD TOURISTS IN COLUMBO YESTERDAY

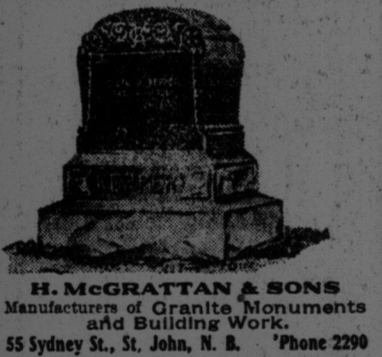

Montreal, April 26.—A cablegram from Colombo, Ceylon, states that the C. P. P. royal mail steamship, Empress of Russia arrived at that port yesterday morning on her round the world trip to Vancouver to take up service between Canada and Japan and China. The party were yesterday visiting the Oriental bazaars in search of eastern novelties and were sightseeing among the Moorish mosque and Hindu temples. So far the trip has been one of unusual pleasure and interest. The next port to be visited is Singapore which will be reached on next Wednesday.

THE PORTWARDENS

The annual term of office of the portwardens will expire with the first of May and their reappointment or the appointment of new members will be considered by the city commissioners on next Tuesday. Any members who wish to be heard will be given the opportunity at this meeting.

Four Valuable Building Lots on Douglas Ave. BY AUCTION

I am instructed by the owner to sell by Public Auction at Chubb's Corner on Saturday morning May 3rd at 12 o'clock, four valuable building lots. First (No. 5) a City plan, having a frontage of 39 feet West side of Douglas Ave. and running back 220 feet more or less. (No. 13) plan being 30 x 180 feet more or less; a 31 x 90 feet, and (No. 33) 28 x 90 feet being in rear of No. 31 and front on Margaret street. These lots are sought the choicest to be obtained on Douglas Ave., and as the order is now council for the completion of water sewerage for the full length of Douglas Ave., property in this locality will increase very much in value in the near future. For further particulars, etc. apply to F. L. POTTS, Auctioneer, Germain St. 4208-53.

RECENT DEATHS

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Connell will sympathize with them in the loss of their little son George, aged one year and seven months. His death took place yesterday at his parents' residence, 424 Main street. Burial will take place this afternoon.

Montreal, April 25.—Archbishop Bruchési has lost an eminent suffragan bishop in the person of Mgr. Joseph Alfred Archambault, first bishop of Joliette, who passed away at the Presbytery of St. Thomas this afternoon. As Bishop Archambault was supposed to be in the very best of health the news of his death caused the deepest sorrow to the head of the arch-diocese, his brother prelates, the clergy and faithful.

The death of Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth McAlpine, aged 57 years, occurred last Monday at her home in Lower Cambridge, N. B. Her husband died only six weeks ago. She is survived by one son and two daughters. Burial at St. John's is her only brother.

James Hughson died on April 16 at the advanced age of 77 years at his home in Bloomfield, Kings county. He was a blacksmith and for forty years was collector of rates for the parish of Norton. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters.

The death of Mrs. Charles Roberts of Red Rapids, Victoria county, occurred on Saturday last in St. Basil's Hospital where she had gone for treatment.

The death of Mrs. Ann Burnett, widow of Robert Burnett, occurred on Thursday at the residence of her son-in-law, Harry M. Hayward, Fredericton. She was in the 72nd year of her age, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Isaac Burden and Mrs. H. M. Hayward, of that city, and three sons, William and Herbert, of the west, and Nelson, of Seattle, all by her first husband, the late James Burnett. One brother, Charles O'Leary, of Bangor, and two sisters, Mrs. Ramsden, of England, and Mrs. George DeLano, of Boston, also survive.

Race Track For Amherst
The Amherst News says the Amherst Speedway Association has decided to build a race track and for that purpose had secured a piece of land from Alder P. Elderkin, about one and a half miles from the post office. The provisional officers in connection with the company are T. E. Lowther, president; C. Borden Chapman, secretary-treasurer; A. W. Moffatt is associated with them as a director. The capital stock of the company will be $10,000 and will be divided into one thousand shares of ten dollars each. It is the intention of the directors to allow the track to be used for driving purposes as well as racing, as they think this will insure a better and harder track and keep the same in better condition during the summer.
