

SPRING SHOW OF NEW BRUNSWICK KENNEL CLUB IS CONCLUDED

SILVER TROPHY GOES TO KETTIE WILSON'S ENTRY

Ridgeway Gamefeather Wins Highest Honors—The Result

Ridgeway Gamefeather, a pointer owned by Kettie Wilson, of Saint John, was awarded the W. H. Thorne silver cup as the best dog in the spring show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club, which was concluded at the Pythian Castle here Saturday night. Biddle, Pal, a cocker spaniel, owned by James McCarthy, of Saint John, won the silver cup for the best dog in the spring show of the children's variety, shown and owned by a youngster under 14 years of age. Biddle's Pal also landed the cup for the best sporting dog.

The collie bitch, Teethoven Beauty, owned by M. S. Morris, of Saint John, won the silver cup for the best non-sporting dog, while Roxie, the airedale bitch owned by Francis Kerr, of this city, was awarded the silver cup as the best terrier. Mrs. K. Wilson's Peltage dog, Chang, of Brookfield, won the silver cup too.

Some Fine Awards.

Frank Shute, of Fredericton, won the cup for the best brace, showing a pair of beautiful Russian wolfhounds Kismila of Kingswood, and Romanoff Lady Olga.

Frank Lockard Sets New World's Unofficial Record on an Oval Track

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

LOCAL BOWLING enthusiasts will be interested in the outcome of the New England candle pin championships, which have been concluded in Boston. Paul Pochler, who has performed in this city, won individual honors making a total of 374 for his three strings. Archie Walsh's name did not appear in the individual list, but was included in the three-man and two-man teams. In the former he was associated with Stiles and Paige and their total was 896. The winning trio turned in a score of 972. In the two-man competition he and Paige rolled 685 while the winners, Polier and Whelan, topped over 701. Walsh is a former Saint John bowler and for many years has considered the champion candle pin bowler of the world. He was a summer home at the Cedars and yearly has a workout on Black's alleys.

FRIENDS IN this city will regret to learn that Nedder Healey is ill at his home in Halifax. Healey has appeared in a local ring on several occasions and won the admiration of fans by his clean cut style and gentlemanly manner. All will unite in wishing him a speedy recovery.

WITH TWO heavyweight bouts pending boxing fans should be able to get a line on a logical opponent for Jack Dempsey. On June 5 Tommy Gibbons will clash with Gene Tunney for the lightweight championship of America, and on June 10 Harry Wells will have visions of one day wearing Jack Dempsey's crown. The latter bout is one of the questionable type, which may or may not prove interesting. Wells has been passing up all kinds of good offers and now has agreed to meet the Newark veteran for $30,000. On the face of it he is out to make some money, but it will mean more to him than the ordinary fan appreciates. If he fails to stop the third rate it will undoubtedly eliminate him from even an outside chance of ever stepping into the ring with the heavyweight champion. Those "in the know" emphatically say that the colored heavyweight's hands are in poor shape and they are betting that Weidert will stay the limit. If he does then good by to Mr. Wells as a drawing card. Had he played the game properly he could have forced Dempsey to meet him, but instead he was content to play possum.

ALPHONSO HOGAN's challenge to "Kid" Roy has been received in Woodstock and recently appeared in the Carleton Sentinel. If the Kid was in earnest when he issued his deft then Hogan will undoubtedly be accommodated.

IN VIEW OF the fact that weather conditions are so unfavorable it might be timely to issue a warning to some of the young baseball players throughout the city. Daily juniors and intermediates can be seen on local diamonds either working out or playing. They apparently have no regard for their throwing arms and keep hurrying the ball around with all the speed at their command. This is especially true to young pitchers. They attempt to throw curves and despite all warnings insist in killing their most valuable asset. A player without a good throwing arm is like a mechanic without tools. During cold weather no chances should be taken for one snappy throw may cause permanent injury to the shoulder muscles. After working out the arm should be covered and kept warm for cold striking the heated muscles is very apt to "glaze" them. Until the weather gets warmer no pitcher should attempt to curve a ball.

SLUGGERS HAVE GREAT DAY IN BOTH LEAGUES

Pitchers Smart Under Burning Base Hit Fire

NEW YORK, May 11. — Twenty-eight pitchers smarted yesterday under the burning base-hit fire, which was spread over five major league parks in the opening games of the fifth week of the 1925 season.

The New York Yankees rolled up a maximum of 19 in the hit column, collected five St. Louis pitchers, in a one-sided victory over the Browns, 18 to 1.

Pennock Finishes Game.

Herb Pennock, Yankee southpaw, was one of the few moundmen to start and finish a game. He allowed seven scattered hits. Two of them, made by George Sizer, advanced the St. Louis star's consecutive game-hitting streak to 26.

Detroit bats barked merrily against five Red Sox pitchers for a total of 35 hits, and a 18 to 5 victory. Rigney led the assault on the Boston club by slashing out a triple and three singles in four times at bat.

Chicago and Washington used three pitchers apiece in their 12-inning struggle in which the White Sox triumphed over the world champions 10 to 8.

Bentley Wins Fourth.

Jack Bentley went into the box and turned in his fourth straight victory of the season, as the Giants won from St. Louis by the score of 8 to 3. Bentley, hit safely 11 times, was saved by sensational fielding.

Five pitchers of the Cincinnati Reds failed to stop the Brooklyn Dodgers in 12 innings. The Robins overcame a two-run advantage by registering three runs for the victory, 9 to 8. The two teams gathered 28 hits.

WILLIAM G. GILES, stellar second baseman on the University of Michigan baseball team, who has been awarded the annual Western Conference medal for scholastic and athletic proficiency. He was recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa, too. He is the first player to gain the award in many years.

BOOTS TONIGHT

Roy Chisholm to Meet Barney Sweeney in Halifax—Good Semi-final.

HALIFAX, May 11.—Barney Sweeney, who is to be Roy Chisholm's opponent in tonight's feature at the Arena, has a good record in New England and New York. He has met all comers without setbacks and he should give Chisholm a warm argument.

The card is one of the season's greatest, as there will really be two feature bouts. In the semi-final, Joe Hartnett, the hard-hitting Halliganian, will fight junior welterweight champion, will oppose Peter McLean, the Glace Bay speedster. In their last bout, the fans were dissatisfied with the decision and this bout was arranged to settle the dispute.
