

DEATHS

Miss M. E. Barrett

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mary E. Barrett, of East St. John, which occurred last evening. Although Miss Barrett had not been in good health for some time, her death came after only a day's illness while she was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. A. Donovan, Haymarket square.

Miss Barrett was a graduate nurse, having obtained her diploma from St. John's Hospital, Lowell, Mass., in 1912. She practised her profession in St. John until stricken by the illness which resulted in her death.

Miss Barrett is survived by her father, step-mother, two sisters, Mrs. John E. Lynch, of Toronto, and Mrs. L. A. Donovan, of this city, and five brothers, John P., of Toronto; Thomas A. and Michael L., of East St. John, and James E., and D. J. of this city.

Dr. William Cruise

The death occurred in Vancouver on March 8, of Dr. William Cruise, formerly a well known New Brunswick physician, but for several years resident on the Pacific coast. Dr. Cruise was born in Bathurst, New Brunswick, and practiced for many years in Bathurst, Pictou and Moncton. His wife was Miss Smith, Moncton. Three sis-

For SURE relief from constipation be sure you get ALL BRAN—Kellogg's!

If you suffer from constipation, you cannot afford to lose time experimenting. The poisons which accumulate while you try ineffective measures can undermine your health.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer will return your money. It brings you SURE results because it is ALL Bran. Nothing but ALL Bran can be wholly effective. Doctors know this! That is why Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is endorsed and prescribed by physicians everywhere. It will bring back your health to you. So be sure you get Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled.

You could tell Kellogg's Bran by your eyes closed—once you had tasted that delicious, nut-like flavor. Kellogg's Bran is quite different from ordinary unpalatable bran. The wonderful flavor of Kellogg's is exclusive. You will like it.

Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, that much with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes which are given on the package—such as bran bread, muffins, griddle cakes, etc.

But start eating Kellogg's Bran today. Have each member of your family eat it. Enjoy that perfect health which should be yours. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is sold by all grocers. It is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and clubs. Get it at your restaurant, too! Made in Toronto, Canada.

ters in St. John survive, Mrs. Elizabeth Dalton, Miss Margaret Cruise and Sister Mary Agnes, of St. Vincent's convent. The late Dr. Cruise was 80 years of age.

Daniel S. Hennessy

Newcastle, March 17—(Special)—Word has been received by Mrs. M. J. Stewart and W. R. Hennessy, of Blackville, of the death at New Westminster,

B.C., of their brother, David S. Hennessy, after a few days illness. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hennessy, of New Jersey, Northumberland county, but has resided at New Westminster for years where he conducted a canning factory. He is survived by a wife and five children, also three sisters, Mrs. James Robinson and Mrs. John Losier, of New Westminster; Mrs. M. J. Stewart, of Blackville, and one brother, William R. Hennessy, of Blackville.

Mrs. Rose Egan

Newcastle, March 17—(Special)—The death of Mrs. Rose Egan, widow of Bernard Egan, occurred at her home on Chaplain Island road, on Thursday, at the age of 89 years. She was formerly Miss Rose Kane, of North Esk. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John McCarthy, of Bartibogue, and Miss Barbara Egan, at home, also one sister, Mrs. Michael Lynch, of Bartibogue. Her only son, Peter Egan, died very suddenly about a month ago.

Father of Mrs. H. Ferguson

Grand Harbor, March 17—(Special)—Mrs. Hilda Ferguson of North Head, has received word of the death of her father at Digby, N. S.

Joseph Burnham

Grand Harbor, March 17—(Special)—O. Burnham of North Head, received a wire informing him of the death of his brother, Joseph, at Haverhill, Mass. He died on Monday after a long illness at the age of 84 years. Mr. Burnham is the only surviving member of the family.

Mrs. Andrew Morrison

Newcastle, March 17—(Special)—The death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Robertson Lingley, Radio street, on Friday of Mrs. Andrew Morrison at the advanced age of 89 years. The late Mrs. Morrison formerly resided in Chatham, but for some time has made her home with her daughter. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Fleming of South Carolina; Mrs. George Flett, South Nelson, and Mrs. J. Robertson Lingley, of Newcastle.

Mrs. J. Bent Ryan

Fredericton, March 17—The death occurred at her home, on Bridge street, North Devon, at an early hour this morning of Mrs. Josephine B. Ryan, wife of J. Bent Ryan, at the age of 49 years. Mrs. Ryan had been in failing health since the death of her eldest daughter, some few months ago, and for the past few months had been seriously ill. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins, Marysville, and is survived by her husband,

Has your skin that silken texture?

If your skin hasn't that silken texture, you should lose no time in seeking to bring back that soft, delicate creaminess that can be yours if you will. Cleaning the skin by soap and water alone is harsh; superficial. To use Daggett & Ramsdell's Perfect Cold Cream means a smooth, beauty-giving cleanness that removes dirt alike from pores and surface.

DAGGETT & RAMSDELL'S
PERFECT COLD CREAM
"The Kind That Keeps"

At least once a day cover your face with "D. & R." that Cream of Distinctive Quality. After a few minutes, wipe off with a soft cloth; all dirt comes with it. Twice a week massage in a second coat. And when your face feels tired and stiff, too, soothe and comfort it with this refreshing cream.

Now manufactured in Canada. Sold everywhere at the same low prices. In jars 10c, 25c, 50c. In jars 2 oz. 35c, 4 oz. 50c, half pound jars 85c, pound jars $1.50.

one son, John, one daughter, Genevieve, and three brothers, Charles and Hugh Higgins, Marysville, and James Higgins, Waterville, Me.

Mrs. John D. Guptill

Grand Harbor, March 17—(Special)—News has reached here of the death of Mrs. Guptill, widow of John D. Guptill, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Gardiner of McAdam. William Guptill of Grand Harbor is a son.

Charles Young

Chatham, March 17—(Special)—Charles Young died Friday at his home in Loggieville after a lengthy illness. He was for many years a val. Co. Mr. Young is survived by his wife, two daughters, one son and two stepdaughters. The funeral was held today.

William Boardman

Canterbury, March 17—(Special)—The death of William Boardman occurred on March 11, at Hartin Settlement. He was 69 years of age, and had not been in very good health for some time, but the end came with painful suddenness on the above date. He leaves his wife, the sons, George, Saxon, Earl, and four daughters, Sarah, Alice, Amy and Ellen.

John McCabe

Chatham, March 17—(Special)—The death occurred at the Hotel Dieu Hospital this morning when John McCabe, aged 16 years, a student at St. Thomas College, succumbed to an attack of meningitis. He had been ill but two weeks. Both the young fellow's parents are dead and he had been living with his aunt, Mrs. Holland, of Red Bank. He entered St. Thomas' College here last fall. The body will be taken to Red Bank for interment.

Norman L. Wetmore

Many friends in the province will regret to learn of the death of Norman L. Wetmore at Melrose Highlands, Mass., on March 15. Mr. Wetmore was a native of Bloomfield, N. B., but had made his home in the United States for many years. He was in his seventieth year and is survived by one brother, W. E. S. Wetmore, of Bloomfield, and one sister, Mrs. Covey, of

FOR LENT
replace meat by Clark's Spaghetti, with Tomato Sauce and cheese

CLARK'S SPAGHETTI
WITH TOMATO SAUCE AND CHEESE
At all dealers
W. CLARK LIMITED MONTREAL

WOMEN! DYE
OLD THINGS NEW

Sweaters Waists Draperies
Skirts Dresses Gingham
Coats Kimonos Stockings

Diamond Dyes

Each 15-cent package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint any old, worn, faded thing new, even if she has never dyed before. Choose any color at drug store.

Stores open 9 a.m.; close 6 p.m.
During month of March.

Calling Your Attention To First Fashions

Women are finding this store a delightful place to spend their shopping hours. Styles and fabrics are fresh, new and bright, and there are garments in types to suit all sizes and ages.

Handsome Coats Approved For Spring

Set out tomorrow and select that coat you've been thinking about. It's here on our second floor.

You may find it in an English looking Homespun made with loose back and raglan sleeves; or a plaid sport coat as jaunty as you please. If you really want a dressy coat, you'll find many beautiful models in soft gabardines, Marvillas or Bolivia cloth. Many of the newest models are made on the new, straight tube-like lines.

New Dresses For Spring Days

You'll find plenty of frocks here with the happy faculty of being appropriate for business or every day wear and quite dressy enough for all informal gatherings. Many of them are straight and tube-like, but for those who prefer to get away from straight lines, our stocks are amply provided. Plaited frills, tiered skirts, fascinating embroideries and various new sleeve styles add distinctive style touches you'll enjoy looking over and considering. Whether you prefer a dress of some of the new silk crepe weaves or a heavier type, you'll be able to choose it here.

(Costume Dept., 2nd floor.)

Manchester Robertson Allison Limited
KING STREET • GERMAIN STREET • MARKET SQUARE

Melrose Highlands. Interment will be made today in Bloomfield on the arrival of the C. P. R. train.

Mrs. David Cripps

Chatham, March 17—(Special)—Mrs. David Cripps died at her home in Napan on Friday evening after a lengthy illness. She is survived by her husband, one daughter and one brother. The funeral took place here this afternoon.

ON DUTY AGAIN.

Moncton, March 17—Fred W. Copeland, the well known C. N. R. locomotive engineer, who recently met with an accident in the roundhouse here, has again resumed his duties on the Moncton-St. John run.

BISHOP DEWDNEY LECTURES.
His Lordship, Bishop, A. D. Dewdney, has a capacity audience last night when he addressed the children of St. James' church and the large number of members of the congregation who also attended. The Bishop told of the missionary work in Canada, making special reference to his own diocese of Keewatin. Rev. H. A. Cody, the rector, was the chairman and extended hearty thanks to the bishop. Bishop Dewdney will address a public meeting in Trinity school room tonight.

An Old Friend's Anniversary

Anything you have used in your home a great many years, because of its fine quality, you value highly.

You wouldn't want to do without it.

It is like an old friend—that has never failed you.

So we may be forgiven, if after 30 years in such a number of homes, we should feel a pardonable pride in being an old friend to so many people. In fact an inquiry from one who has used RED ROSE TEA since we began business prompted us to make this mention of our 30th Anniversary.

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"—for thirty years the same good tea—and if you'd like to taste how good, how fresh and fragrant—ring up your grocer and have him send a package.

Three styles illustrated. None of these nightgowns require ironing.

1,000 Nightgowns
On Sale Tomorrow at $1.98 each

These nightgowns include values as high as $3.00 and are made of finest Plain Venetian Crepe, Shadow Striped Crepe or Figured Mercerized Crepe. We are making the $1.98 price even more attractive by offering an additional saving if you buy two.

Take your choice of round, square or V-necks and the following colors: White, Pink, Orchid, Sky, Maize and beautiful pattern designs.

For $1.75 you could not buy the materials and make them at home.

D'Allaird

Blouses - Dresses - Lingerie
81 KING STREET

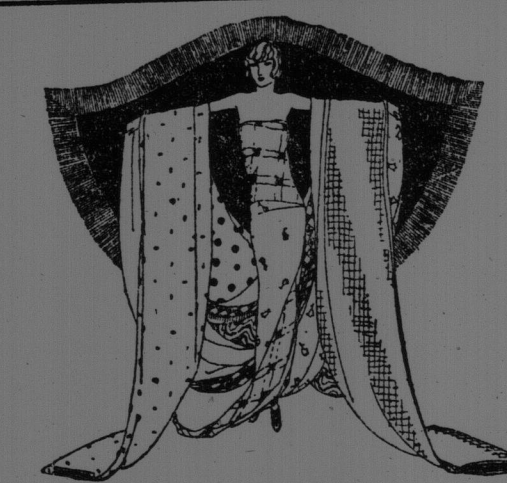

Sale of Men's Shirts —NOW ON—

—AT—Amdur's, Ltd.

Tooke's Negligee Shirts 98c
Tooke's Derby Cord Shirts $1.35
Tooke's Silk-Striped Shirts, Potter print $1.69
English Broadcloth Shirts $3.95

Men's Worsted Sox, 3 pairs for $1.00

AMDUR'S, LTD., No. 1 King Sq.

Brocade Faconne A New Crepe

Weight—between a Canton and Crepe de Chine. Appearance—none ever accomplished before, a brocade of subtle lustre and crepe shading.

Uses—a thousand, primarily for Dresses, Overblouses, Jackettes, insets, panels, vestes, finishing touches. Even a hat trim.

Colors—Pelican Gray, a silveriness faintly influenced by Lilac—Whirlpool, Deer, Log Cabin, Tete de Negre. Price—yard wide and $3.25.

OTHER NEW ONES

La Belle Crepe—heavy and woven with Silk. In figured effects at $3.25 yard.

Krepe de Leen—a heavy knitted Silk Crepe. Brown, Gray, Silver, Deer, Navy and Black. In these straight colors, $3.25 yard. May be combined with figured effects at $4.25 yard.

Pongette—a fine French Sateen of high sheen and narrow striping. Favored for Bloomers, Orchid, Shrimp, Flesh, Cream, Copen, 69c.

DANIEL
CORNER KING
LONDON HOUSE